Urges Asian Council To Insure Stability

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, in the major foreign policy address promised in his presidential candidacy announcement Tuesday, today called for a reversal of the "Americanization" of the Vietnam war effort and the convening of a council of Asian nations to work for economic progress and political stability in the area.

The New York governor said "the Saigon government should be encouraged to mobilize and develop its best manpower" as part of a four-point program to strengthen chances for successful negotiation of a creative political solution to the Vietnam crisis.

"Our strategy must reflect the fact that the essential issue is the security of the population —rather than control of territory," he said. "To this purpose, military escalation in the North is no answer."

He also called for building and protecting local governments, and broadening of the South Vietnamese national government in his speech before the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

His remarks were prepared for delivery.

Rockefeller praised President Johnson for "his initiative in seeking a just peace" and declared, "We have nothing to fear—and all to gain—from the careful and responsible quest for a negotiated settlement."

The governor listed "three essential bases for our position in this negotiation:

—"We will not accept—as we shall not try to impose—any solution dictated by force.

—"We should accept in South Vietnam's political life any group that seeks its objectives through the political process rather than by wrecking it—by force or subversion.

—"We must seek a settlement whose aims and guarantees safeguard the freedom and security of all Southeast Asia."

Speaking of the President's peace initiative, Rockefeller said "I do not believe that this time of renewed hope is a time to stand in silence"—an apparent reference to the Vietnam stand of Richard M. Nixon, his only major rival for the Republican nomination.

Nixon, addressing the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington D.C. on April 19, referred to President Johnson's efforts to get peace efforts under way, and said: "I intend as long as there is any hope for successful conclusion of these negotiations to have a moratorium on criticism."

Regarding the Asian nations, Rockefeller said "a lasting peace must embrace the lives of all the hundreds of millions living in the great crescent from Japan throughout India to Iran."

He urged "our calling of a conference of all these governments to discuss and to define joint efforts for fostering economic progress and political stability throughout the area."

The governor declared "we should encourage contact and communication—for the good of us both" with Communist China.

US, Reds Locked in Intensive Battle for Third Straight Day

SAIGON (AP) — Fighting raged today for the third straight day in the northeast corner of South Vietnam, where U.S. and South Vietnamese troops reported killing 616 of the enemy in the past two days.

Military spokesman said 43 Americans were killed and 221 wounded in heavy fighting Tuesday. The South Vietnamese lost six killed and 17 wounded. Allied casualties in two days of fighting in this sector totaled 60 killed and 279 wounded.

Military spokesmen said units of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division and South Vietnamese infantrymen regained contact about noon with a sizable North Vietnamese force near the Marine division's headquarters at Dong Ha. U.S. fighter-bombers and artillery were pounding the enemy positions.

It appeared that the Communist command might be shifting pressure to South Vietnam's northeast corner from the northwestern section, where the U.S. Marine combat base at Khe Sanh was under siege for 77 days earlier this year.

The Marines and government troops fought day-long battles Tuesday as they swept the northeast seacoast to take pressure off allied bases just below the demilitarized zone and off their land supply line, Highway 1. The allied forces are operating within a mile of each other and about nine miles below the eastern flank of DMZ.

After large clashes Monday near Hue and Dong Ha, the allied forces fought until nearly midnight Tuesday north and east of Dong Ha, and other allied troops drove off an enemy attack near Quang Tri City, eight miles farther south.

South Vietnamese forces reported killing 100 North Vietnamese Tuesday near Dona Ha in the same battle area where allied units claimed 130 enemy dead the previous day.

In another clash near the village where the U.S. 3rd Marine Division is headquartered units of the division reported killing 92 of an estimated 400 enemy soldiers fighting from fortified bunkers.

The U.S. Command maintained its security blackout on news of Operation Delaware, in the A Shau Valley southwest of Hue, but said U.S. B52 bombers attacked North Vietnamese truck parks and gun positions today in the valley.

Meet in Primaries

Candidates Slip Under Wire To File For County Offices

The deadline for filing for state and county office for the Aug. 6 primary passed in a flurry Tuesday with three persons filing before the 5 p.m. deadline.

Those filing Tuesday were: Earl Albers, 711 North Grand, for Judge of the eastern district for the Pettis County Court; John Zulauf, 32nd and Grand, for the office of public administrator; Dr. R. W. Hartman, 1600 South Prospect, for the position of coroner; and Raymond Wasson, LaMonte, for the office of assessor. Albers was the sole Democrat to file, while Zulauf, Hartman, and Wasson all filed on the Republican ticket.

A complete list of candidates who have filed for county offices:

Sheriff — Emmett Fairfax, Democrat, incumbent, unopposed.

Coroner — Dr. C. Gordon Stauffacher, Democrat, incumbent; Dr. R. W. Hartman, Republican.

Prosecutor — Henry Keeler, Republican, incumbent, unopposed.

Western district judge — Zeb Thomas, Republican incumbent; Sam Tuck, Democrat.

Eastern district judge — E. L. "Red" Birdsong, Democrat, incumbent; Tom Moriarty, Democart; Earl R. Albers, Democrat; James Atkinson, Republican.

For the 116th District, Republican incumbent Dr. Gus Sally, Warsaw, will be opposed by Hank Monsees for the Republican nomination. Morran Harris is unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

US Is Ready For Talks On Neutral Ship

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House quickly accepted today an Indonesian suggestion that preliminary peace talks with representatives of North Vietnam take place on an Indonesian naval vessel in the Gulf of Tonkin.

Shortly after Indonesia's suggestion was announced in Jakarta, White House press secretary George Christian told newsmen:

"A neutral ship on a neutral sea would be a good meeting place."

He said Indonesia's proposal "is acceptable to the United States."

Christian made it clear that the U.S. government—and presumably Hanoi—had been informed of the Indonesian plan in advance of the public announcement in Jakarta. "You can assume that there have also been other contacts on this," he said.

Report Tipton Boy Missing In Action

TIPTON — Capt. James F. Lang, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lang, Tipton, was reported missing in action in Vietnam Sunday according to two airmen from Whiteman Air Force Base who notified the parents Tuesday.

Capt. Lang is a pilot with the U. S. Air Force in Vietnam.

Hectic, Last-Minute Bid To Get Names on Ballots

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — First round skirmishing is over and now the candidates can get down to the business of preparing for the August primary.

Candidate filings ended Tuesday at 5 p.m. in the secretary of state's office, climaxing a hectic race to get on the ballot in some contests. But the lines of battle already had been drawn for the major offices and no radical changes developed in the feverish final hours.

Two factors marked these filings as different from the past—more candidates than ever before, possibly because of higher salaries all up and down the line, and a greater number of Negro candidates in both parties.

Even LeRoy (Satchel) Paige, the ageless, miraculous pitcher from Kansas City, got into the game of politics. He filed for the 11th District House of Representatives seat in Kansas City on the Democratic ticket because, he said, he couldn't get a job as a pitching coach.

In the major races, the U. S. Senate contest on the Democratic side boiled down, as expected, into a three-way battle for the nomination. The principal candidates are Sen. Edward V. Long of Clarksville, Mo., the incumbent, Lt. Gov. Thomas F. Eagleton of St. Louis and W. True Davis of St. Joseph.

On the Republican ballot are Congressman Thomas B. Curtis of Webster Groves, Morris Dewayne Duncan of Kansas City and Forrest Nave Jr. of Lexington.

For governor, both Democratic Gov. Warren E. Hearnes and Republican Lawrence K. Roos, St. Louis County supervisor, are already campaigning against each other as if they were the only ones in the race, but both have nominal primary opposition.

Other Democratic candidates are Milton Morris of Kansas City and Robert Curtis of St. Louis. Other Republicans are Harry C. Timmerman of Hazelwood and Harry F. Euge of St. Louis.

It's a crowded contest for lieutenant governor on the Democratic ticket with 10 candidates in the running.

They are W.S. (Bill) Morris of Kansas City, James W. Shaffer of Kansas City, James L. Sullivan of Affton, Daniel Preston Williams of Clayton, the Rev. Bill Beeny of Wright City, State Sen. John E. Downs of St. Joseph, Edward L Dowd of St. Louis, Bill Bangert of Champ, Scott Ousley of Rolla and Dr. Phillip Dennis of St. Louis.

Two Republicans filed—State Sen. Lem T. Jones Jr. of Kansas City and George R. Hart. Maplewood contractor and insurance man.

Secy. of State James C. Kirkpatrick got home free with no democratic primary opposition. But on the final day two Re-

Want Tax Cuts When War Ends

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican Coordinating Committee, accusing the Johnson administration of fomenting a kind of "fiscal socialism," called today for regular annual reductions of income taxes beginning as soon as the Vietnam war ends.

The committee, representing major GOP elements, made no outright recommendation on whether a tax increase should be imposed in the meantime. But it acknowledged such action might be necessary as a last resort when all possible reductions in spending have been made.

Any such increases, it said, should provide for early termination.

These were among key conclusions in a 75-page report laden with criticism of Democratic fiscal policies and entitled "An Economy in Crisis."

The committee said administration antipoverty efforts have failed, producing "crushing disappointment for the affected citizens" and "substantially increased tensions" in urban slums.

The report urged creation of a board similar to the Hoover commissions on government organization, to make recommendations for eliminating low-priority government expenditures, reducing waste and duplication in government and advancing management practices.

Such a board has long been pushed by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, the Arkansas Democrat who heads the House Ways and Means Committee.

The report also recommended improvements in budget practices with frequent reports to Congress on changes in fiscal estimates.

Much of the document was devoted to charges that, since the end of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's GOP administration in 1961, Democratic successors had allowed development of a dangerous inflation.

People In The News

WASHINGTON (AP) — Director J. Edgar Hoover says the FBI has no authority to control riots—and does not seek such national police power.

The FBI role in civil disorders, he writes in the May issue of the FBI's "Law Enforcement Bulletin," is to gather and disseminate intelligence, and to keep alert to specific violations of federal law.

Hoover explained he wrote the clarification because the FBI role is often misunderstood.

Would Hold Protestors Responsible For Losses

WASHINGTON — Rep. William J. Randall has prepared legislation which he will introduce to require persons holding demonstrations on property of the United States either in the District of Columbia or elsewhere to post bond to cover the estimated cost of cleaning, repairing and restoring the sites of such demonstrations to their previous condition immediately prior to such demonstration, his office has announced.

In a speech made on the floor of the House on April 25, Randall stated, "The people of our Fourth Missouri District should never be required to pay any proportion or amount of the damages caused by irresponsible marchers who destroy or damage government property."

Randall recalled extensive damages caused by the marchers on the Pentagon last October ran into a sizeable dollar volume. The cost of these repairs due to damage inflicted as well as the cost for cleaning up the streets and replacing shrubbery had to be borne by the "law abiding taxpayers." Randall pointed out.

Referring to the "Poor People's March," Randall emphasized, "we must not let this loss be repeated again in May of 1968." Randall said most members of Congress were shocked to learn no effort has been made to proceed against those who caused the damage and destruction to government property or to take any firm steps since October to enforce indemnity for the loss.

In comment on his bill, Randall pointed out it will require within 30 days following such demonstrations indemnity be paid to the United States for any loss in excess of the amount of the bond. Failure to pay such indemnity will carry penalties of heavy fine and imprisonment or both. Randall added that he is convinced the intensity of the demonstration might be substantially reduced if its sponsors are required to assume financial responsibility for the consequences of their destructive acts against government property. He concluded by saying, "Let last October be a lesson for this May. This time let's force the demonstrators to pay for their damage."

Third Heart Attack For Eisenhower

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is expected to be hospitalized here several weeks following a heart attack that an aide describes as mild.

The 77-year-old soldier-statesman suffered a "myocardial infarction," a blood clot in a heart artery, the March Air Force Base Hospital said. It was his third heart attack since 1955.

The bulletin issued late Tuesday was the first official word of his illness. It said "a general prognosis cannot be made at this time."

Although the bulletin did not specify when the attack occurred, it was assumed the retired five-star general was stricken Monday after playing golf in the morning.

Until Tuesday his ailment was described as "chest pains."

"He has had a good day with no chest pain," the hospital bulletin said.

Advocate For Coalition Is Arrested

SAIGON (AP)—The runnerup in South Vietnam's presidential election, Truong Dinh Dzu, was arrested and removed from a Saigon hospital today for advocating a coalition government with the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

"I wonder why Robert Kennedy is not arrested in the United States since he advocated a coalition government, too," said Dzu's wife.

Dzu's family said he was arrested despite signed statements from three doctors—two of them from the national police —that he was suffering from heart trouble and should not be moved for several weeks.

Dzu polled 17 per cent of the votes in last fall's presidential election, half as many as President Nguyen Van Thieu. Dzu has been in and out of jail several times since the September election.

He was released April 14 after seven weeks of "protective custody" and shortly after reportedly told several newsmen that the only possible settlement to the Vietnam war was a coalition government that included the National Liberation Front.

State Law is Block to Remap

BY PATRICK CLARK
Democrat-Capital Staff Writer

The recent Supreme Court decision extending the "one man, one vote" principle to local governmental units apparently won't have much affect on Sedalia, but Pettis County is a different story.

According to Mayor Ralph Walker, city ward and precinct boundaries were reorganized more than a year ago by a committee appointed by the City Council.

Walker said this committee remedied such unbalanced wards as one which had one precinct with three times more people than another precinct in the same ward. So basically the city is in compliance with the high court ruling.

But the county faces an impasse caused by a conflict between a state law and the Supreme Court ruling.

A state statute says, "The county court shall be composed of three members, to be styled judges of the county court, and each county shall be districted by the county court thereof into two districts of contiguous territory, as near equal in population as practicable without dividing townships."

In view of this, it would be virtually impossible to evently reapportion the county without splitting Sedalia Township.

According to Henry Lamm, presiding judge of the Pettis County Court, E.L. "Red" Birdsong, judge of the Eastern district, has four of the county's 17 townships but two-thirds of the population of the county in his district. Birdsong's district includes Heath's Creek, Bowling Green, Smithton, and Sedalia Townships. Zeb Thomas, judge of the western district, has the remaining 13 townships, but only one-third the population in his district.

In view of the Supreme Court ruling and in the state statute on splitting townships, Lamm said "The state is going to have to give us laws to work with," to reapportion the county.

Any action taken toward reapportionment based on the 1960 census would be inaccurate, Lamm conceded, adding that after the 1970 census would be the logical time for any action.

Proclaims Today as Law Day

Sedalia Mayor Ralph Walker Tuesday signed a proclamation proclaiming today as "Law Day," in Sedalia. The day is designated to recognize the supremacy of government by law rather than by men. W. K. Gibson, president of the Sedalia Bar Association looks on as Walker signs the proclamation. The theme for the 11th annual Law Day is "Only Law Can Build A Better Society." (Democrat-Capital Photo)

Amphibious Operations Are Ideal for Marines

By LEWIS M. SIMONS
Associated Press Writer

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP) — Although the U.S. Marine Corps is primarily an amphibious force, Marines are fully trained and prepared for conventional ground warfare, their commander in South Vietnam says.

"We fight out of the same manual as the Army in land warfare," Lt. Gen. Robert Cushman said in an interview. "It is in the amphibious operation where we differ. That is our primary mission."

Cushman maintained his troops are well trained for fighting as varied as the street battles of Hue to the long term holding actions of Khe Sanh.

"At Khe Sanh we started out with a small force and used the area as a base for mobile operations," Cushman said. "Later, when the pressure built, there was no opportunity for a Maginot-Line type of defense to be built."

Cushman was answering recent criticism of the Marine position at Khe Sanh.

"It is our basic doctrine that when you stop moving, you dig in. And the longer you stay put, the deeper you dig," Cushman said.

He also said that based on his visits to Khe Sanh, he issued three specific orders to the commander of the 5,000 Marines at the combat base: "Dig faster, deeper and better."

That the Marines were in fact well dug in at Khe Sanh was borne out by the casualty figures for the 77-day siege of the combat base near the Laos border, he said.

The siege under the big guns of North Vietnam's Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap began Jan. 2 and lasted until the base was relieved by a combined Marine and Army force in Operation Pegasus. During that time, according to Marine Corps figures, 204 Marines were killed and 845 were wounded seriously enough to be evacuated and another 777 received minor wounds.

"That averages out to less than three men killed a day," Cushman said. "Why, there are more Marines killed every day just sweeping the paddy fields around Da Nang searching for guerrillas."

Other Marine Corps figures claimed a confirmed kill of 1,561 North Vietnamese troops around the Khe Sanh combat base.

As to claims that the Marines were ill-prepared for street fighting such as they encountered in the old imperial capital of Hue, Cushman said: "The facts state otherwise.

"It just so happens that I was in charge of training troops for Vietnam duty while I was at Camp Pendleton (California). All Marines go through simulated combat cities and were trained in city fighting."

The general said the Marines were so effective in the fight for the Hue Citadel—the former seat of Vietnamese emperors—that they once cleared North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops out of a hospital without injuring any of the patients in the building.

Marine Corps figures state that 141 Marines were killed in Hue street fighting from Feb. 3 to March 3. In addition, 853 Marines were evacuated for serious wounds and 222 were treated for minor wounds.

The figures claim the Marines killed 1,927 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong soldiers.

Cushman was asked about an article by a British newsman who wrote, prior to the lifting of the Khe Sanh siege, that at the Marine base at Camp Carroll, 12 miles from the demilitarized zone, an officer was reported to have said Marines slept above ground rather than in bunkers because sleeping below ground "is bad for morale."

"That is just not true," Cushman said.

"I've been to Camp Carroll. They have bunkers, they have fighting holes and they also have tents which are a lot more comfortable to sleep in.

"There is always a balance you have to make when you are under occasional artillery fire. You can sleep in bunkers all the time or you can sleep in tents, and get better rest, and go to the bunkers when you come under attack.

"This would not be the case," he said, "when troops are under almost constant attack as the Marines were at Khe Sanh."

Marine Corps figures claimed that during the last two weeks of February, "the heaviest they ever had there" according to a spokesman, Camp Carroll was struck by fewer than 300 rounds. Since that time, according to the figures, the weekly shelling of Camp Carroll has dropped to "well under a 100 rounds a week."

The shelling of Khe Sanh hit a high of more than 1,300 rounds a day.

Observers have stated that the Marines are misplaced in the northernmost I Corps tactical zone; that they would be better suited to making amphibious assaults in the river-laced Mekong Delta.

Cushman said this was a misconception.

"That is not an amphibious operation. It is nothing but a great big swamp. It is riverine warfare," he said.

The U.S. Command trained troops of the Army's 9th Infantry Division and specialized naval teams to form the Mobile Riverine Force in the Delta. New weapons, including armored boats and barge-mounted artillery, were developed for the job.

"That kind of warfare had to be invented," Cushman said. He added that the Marines were in no more a natural position by way of prior training to take over the delta area than were the Army troops.

Defeat Bid For New School Organization

MACON, Mo. (AP)—Voters in Macon County rejected Tuesday in a special election a proposal to create a county unit school district organization.

The vote was 533 in favor and 1,861 against. A simple majority was needed. Similar proposals had failed in the past.

The bill would have provided for a six-member school board and equal school tax throughout the county.

Dismissal Is Viewed As a Threat

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The recent dismissal of eight instructors at Southeast Missouri State College was described in an address here Tuesday night as an apparent threat to academic freedom in Missouri.

Although the teachers demanded to know the reasons for their dismissals authorities at the Cape Girardeau college refused them, state Sen. John Downs, D-St. Joseph, said.

Downs, speaking at Rockhurst College, said "It is a sad situation when an employe who deals in products can guarantee himself a continuous record of employment, and those who deal in the ideas and in the training of young minds may be dismissed with an inferential cloud hanging over their heads."

The senator, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, said there is a remedy of 50 years standing in state laws that should be applied in this case.

The service letter law, Downs said, has prevented the blacklisting of employes in industry by supporting their right to demand a letter from employers stating the true reasons for their dismissals.

He said he has been assured by fellow state senators that legislation would be offered to provide the same protection for those in the teaching profession. It is regrettable, he added, that there must always be some victims before remedial legislation is enacted.

Promises Purge Of Stalinists In Departments

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's interior minister promised Tuesday that his department and the police would be purged of old-line Stalinists. He also announced that wire-tapping equipment is now outlawed.

"Three or four deputy ministers together with other top officials will be replaced," Interior Minister Josef Pavel told the Czech news agency CTK. He added that personnel changes would go "down to the ground."

Pavel pledged a careful investigation of all officials who took part in the Stalinist purges of the 1950s and said all "defaulters will have to answer to the law or will be dismissed from the police force."

The shake-up in the police department came to light on April 12, when Pavel disclosed that he was separating the secret police from the regular civilian police services. This move was recommended in the Action Program of party chief Alexander Dubcek, helmsman of the new liberal course. At that time Pavel also said he was trying to remove from the force "people who violated the law."

Chanel in Dictionary

For years, fashion pages have been filled with coats and suits that are described as Chanel style. The straight, tailored clothes described are variations on a theme set by Gabrielle Chanel, a French fashion designer, whose classic, ageless styles are popular for both city and suburbs. Chanel has become so famous that she's now mentioned in a new dictionary of the English language.

Hectic

publicans filed—Murray C. Colbert of Montgomery City, long active in GOP politics, and Maurice S. Karner of Creve Coeur, an attorney.

The treasurer's race brought out half a dozen Democrats. They are L. E. Morris of Jefferson City, William E. Robinson of Jefferson City, Frank Haggerty of Jefferson City, James (Jim) Ratcliff of Kansas City, Donald V. Nangle of St. Louis and former State Rep. Peter J. J. Rabbitt of St. Louis.

Two Republicans are running — former state Rep. William Zimmerman of Warrenton and former state Sen. W. H. Macon

The attorney general's office also produced a contest.

On the Democratic side it's Atty. Gen. Norman H. Anderson seeking renomination against Russell Millin of Kansas City and John E. Hosmer of Marshfield.

The winner will oppose either Republican Joseph E. Furtaw of Hillsboro or John C. Danforth of Creve Coeur.

Five incumbent congressmen win automatic nomination with no primary opposition.

They are Mrs. Leonor K. Sullivan, D-St. Louis, in the 3rd District; Rep. William J. Randall, D - Independence, in the 4th; Rep. W. R. Hull, D-Weston, in the 6th; Durward G. Hall, R-Springfield, in the 7th, and Rep. William L. Hungate, D-Troy, in the 9th.

In the 1st District of northern St. Louis and the 10th of southeastern Missouri, the Democratic incumbents are retiring and that brought out a spate of candidates. Retiring are Rep. Frank M. Karsten of St. Louis and Rep. Paul C. Jones of Kennett.

Among the last to file in the 1st are former State Treasurer Milton Carpenter of St. Louis, a Democrat, and Curtis C. Crawford, St. Louis Negro attorney who made a special point of the fact he is switching from the Democratic to the Republican party.

In the 5th District, Rep. Richard Bolling of Kansas City, has only nominal primary opposition in the person of Robert I. Hatch of Kansas City.

The same is true in the 8th, where Rep. Richard H. Ichord, D-Houston, is opposed by William David Hardin of Waynesville.

Priest Is Among Five Arrested

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Police who said they were acting on signed complaints charging a public nuisance arrested five young Negro men and a white Roman Catholic priest who were passing out leaflets Tuesday night.

They were members of a group of about 35 persons standing in front of the Emery Bird Thayer department store on the Country Club Plaza, police said. The store was closed at the time.

Emery Bird Thayer stores on the Plaza and downtown have been picketed for several weeks by members of the Council for United Action which charges they employ discriminatory hiring practices.

Arrested were the Rev. Timothy T. Gibbons, 37, a priest at Holy Name Catholic Church; Carl O. O'Neal, 22; Louis G. Tolbert, 19; Thomas H. Paige, 18; Lawrence Turner, 21, and Dennis Webster, 19, all of Kansas City.

They were ordered to appear in municipal court this morning to face charges of disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace.

Pieper Speaks To Optimists

Trooper Charles Pieper of the Highway Patrol was the speaker at the Optimist Club meeting Tuesday noon at the State Fair Restaurant explaining the new program "Motor Vehicle Inspection."

The inspection will not become required in the state until Jan. 1, 1969, Pieper said. It is still voluntary inspection of cars, but the first of the year all vehicles must be inspected within six months before the license is purchased. A license will not be issued for a vehicle that does not have a receipt and certificate of inspection.

Certain garages will be designated as inspection centers and these will be examined for their qualifications. The background of all mechaniccs used for inspections will be checked and not all mechanics in the inspection center will be used, only those designated.

The inspection license will cost $2.50, 50 cents of which will go to the state and $2 to the garage. It is not necessary to get the car fixed at the place where it is inspected. The inspection center is required to file a written report of what was found wrong with the car, if anything, and it may be taken anywhere to be repaired. However, it must be inspected again after the repairs are made, but there will be no additional cost for the inspection. The vehicle should be repaired in 15 days, and ten additional days will be allowed without additional cost, Pieper said.

Twenty-one states have this inspection, seven setting up the program in 1967, Pieper told the group. He stated that the program is being established in hopes that this will remove many unsafe cars from the road.

Before going for inspection the driver must have proof that he is the owner of the car. A decal type of sign will be placed on the inspected cars.

Speaking of other types of traffic laws, Peiper remarked that he stopped 20 traffic violators in an hour, and the one thing most people forget is the drivers license which must be signed. A great many people fail to sign the license after they buy it.

Pieper spoke briefly on motorcycles bringing out the fact that no matter whether it is a motorcycle or a car the age must be 16 years and parents who allow a child less than 16 to drive a motorcycle are liable just as they are for those under 16 who are allowed to drive a car.

The meeting was presided over by Lee Deason, president, and invocation was by the Rev. Walter P. Arnold.

Gerald Cecil, chairman of boys work, reported on the bicycle safety program which was held the past week in conjunction with the Sunrise Optimist Club and the police department. There were between 250 and 300 bicycles checked, he said, and he had good support from the members of the club.

Hail Rocky's Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Prominent Republicans across the nation have hailed Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's entry into the presidential race but some expressed doubt that he will be able to overtake Richard M. Nixon.

Some of those who commented on the New York governor's declaration Tuesday that he is a candidate for the nomination said his entry will lead to a healthful discussion of the issues.

Those with reservations about Rockefeller's chances said that Nixon has been campaigning hard for the GOP nomination and has built up considerable convention delegate strength.

Others brought up the question of what effect there might be on Gov. Ronald Reagan of California, whose status now is that of a home state favorite son candidate.

Nixon, who lives in the same New York apartment house as Rockefeller, said his neighbor's active candidacy will "make for a more exciting convention and will result in a more meaningful discussion of the issues."

The former vice president, who was in Harrisburg, Pa., conferring with Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, also said Rockefeller "can conduct a very vigorous campaign from his strong position as governor of New York."

"But I think I'll win the nomination," Nixon declared.

Rockefeller's announcement brought comment from Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, both campaigning for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Kennedy said: "Obviously, it gives the Republican party a choice, and that's good. . ."

McCarthy said in part: "Rocky has been more difficult to pin down on issues. But then, Nixon used to be more decisive and more firm than he is now."

Senators Remain Aloof From 'Belt Tightening'

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, which voted only last month to boost taxes while slashing federal spending $6 billion, now has taken a first step toward giving itself a new office building critics contend will cost the taxpayers $100 million.

The vote was 42 to 33 Tuesday for a measure authorizing $1.25 million for acquisition of a site for what would be the third Senate office building.

The approval overrode protests by Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., author of the Senate-passed tax hike-spending cut measure, who contended congressional economy should start at home.

Williams, noting that until 10 years ago the Senate had only one office building for 96 members, said the construction would about triple the office space although only 4 more senators—those from Alaska and Hawaii—have been added in that period.

Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., managing the bill, rejected Williams' assertion the land is being bought "with the ultimate intention of building another $100 million office building."

A preliminary estimate, Jordan said, is that the building will cost $29.4 million. Money for the land acquisition still must be appropriated, and any construction also would face the dual authorization-appropriation process.

Of the 42 senators voting for the land purchase authorization, 19 had voted in late March to keep in the tax package sections directing the Johnson administration to trim federal spending by $6 billion.

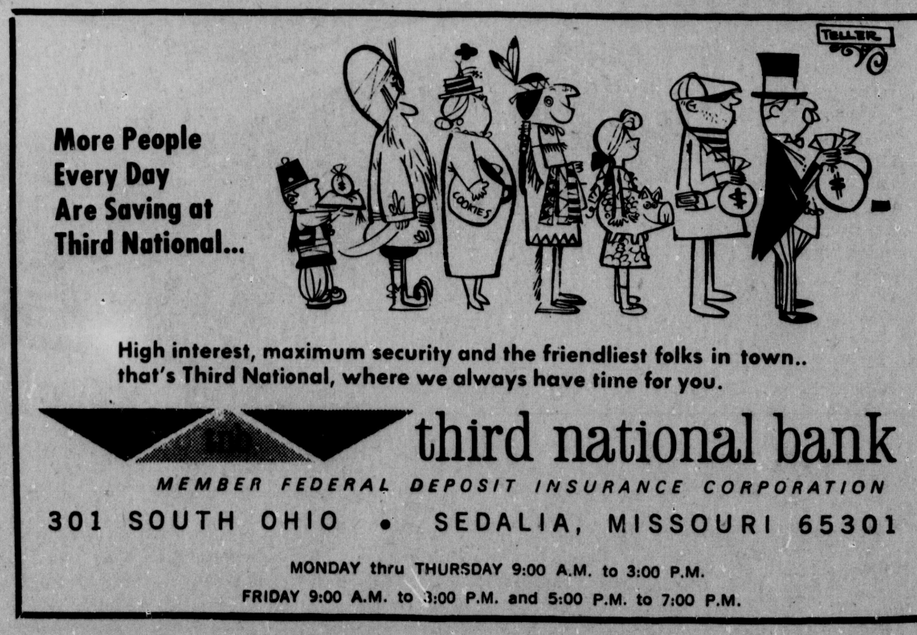

The 19 include 10 Democrats, among them Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., the other co-sponsor of the tax package, and nine Republicans.

In addition, four senators who voted for the land purchase were among those who resigned last month from a Senate-House conference committee rather than support the demand of a majority of senators for extra pre-school and summer job funds. All cited Congress' commitment to economy in explaining their resignations.

The four are Democratic Sens. Richard B. Russell of Georgia and Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, and Republican Sens. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and Milton R. Young of North Dakota.

Others who voted for the expenditure reduction but supported the land purchase included Sens. Harry F. Byrd Jr., D-Va.; Clifford P. Case, R-N.J.; James O. Eastland, D-Miss.; Hiram L. Fong, R-Hawaii; Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich.; Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho; Charles H. Percy, R-Ill.; James B. Pearson, R-Kan.; John J. Sparkman, D-Ala.; William B. Spong, Jr., D-Va.; John C. Stennis, D-Miss.; Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., and Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md.

Dinner Honors Area Teacher

Miss Irene Craig, California, fourth grade instructor of South Elementary School in Jefferson City, who is retiring this year, was honored at a dinner meeting of the Central Missouri State College District Alumni Association held at the Jefferson City Senior High School recently.

Earl S. Amos, president of the district association, introduced Jim McCollum, president of the national association of CMSC, who presented Miss Craig an orchid in recognition of her 42 years of teaching service to the public shools of Missouri. She is a graduate of CMSC. Mrs. Marvin Hager, a kindergarten teacher, read a tribute to Miss Craig.

Miss Craig taught two years in Augusta before joining the faculty at old Broadway School in 1926 in Jefferson City. She resides in Jefferson City during the week and commutes to her home in California on week ends.

Miss Duretta Mueller, California, former high school mathematics instructor of Miss Craig's, and Mrs. Velma Hall of California, attended the dinner. Also present for the dinner were the principals with whom Miss Craig had worked.

Couple is Wed In Kansas City

Giant Marigold daisies and yellow gladioli embellished the altar of the Loma Vista Baptist Church in Kansas City for the April 13 afternoon wedding of Miss Marsha Lee Burry, and Steven Raymond Decker. The Rev. Phillip B. Settle performed the ceremony for the daughter of Mrs. Maude E. Burry, Kansas City, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Decker, Versailles.

Mrs. Freda Smith, organist, Kansas City, played a program of nuptial music and accompanied Kenneth Spence, Kansas City, as he sang, "More," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was gowned in a white peau de soie and lace creation, designed on princess lines, with a camelotte train. Her veil of soft bridal illusion cascaded a peau de soie petal cluster, trimmed in seed pearls. She carried an orchid surrounded by a cascade bouquet of white daisies.

Mrs. Sue Martin, Kansas City, attended her sister as matron of honor and Mrs. Rebecca Woodcook, Greenwood, served as bridesmaid. Their gowns were avacado green crepe styled on Empire lines and highlighted with daisies. Their flowers were nosegays of white daisies.

James F. Mutter, Louisville, Ky., was best man and Steven Vogt, Versailles, served as groomsman.

A Measure of Peace in Guatemala

GUATEMALA (AP) — In a daring stroke almost two years after his election, President Julio Cesar Mendez Montenegro has assumed full control of the government, which he had been forced to share with military overlords.

As a result, a measure of peace has settled over this long troubled Central American country, where political violence between rightist and leftist extremists has taken at least 1,000 lives and possibly as many as 4,000, since Mendez, a Liberal, became president in July 1966.

The only violent deaths of political significance since the shift three weeks ago involved the leaders of a right-wing terrorist organization, slain while in police custody under officially explained but still clouded circumstances.

The move that quashed right-wing extremist influence in the government—at least for the present—came last March 28 when President Mendez fired three top officials including Defense Minister Rafael Arriaga Bosque.

The president's decision, it is generally believed here, has stripped rightist terrorists of official protection and pacified the non-Communist left. It has also neutralized an effective source of Castroite recruiting propaganda: militarism in government.

Still to be seen is just how far-left militants, given a respite from military pressures, will respond to the changes.

The abduction of Guatemala's archbishop, Msgr. Mario Casariego, last month is regarded as a catalyst in bringing the explosive Guatemalan situation to an anticlimax few local or foreign observers had anticipated.

The kidnaping of the 58-year-old prelate was the far right's boldest and most desperate bid to bring down Mendez. The now-apparent objective was to make it appear the abduction was the work of the far left and thus turn Roman Catholic sentiment against the government, which the rightists claim is infiltrated with Communists.

There was little or no public response, however, because it was quickly established that the rightist terrorist group MANO was responsible.

The Guatemalan Curia exhorted Catholics to remain calm and refused to deal with the kidnapers who had issued an ultimatum that unless Mendez resigned the archbishop would be killed. He was released March 20.

The archbishop had been in Mexico on church business and was kidnaped March 16 as he was being driven from the airport to his home.

The circumstances of the abduction—in broad daylight in an area usually alive with armed guards and during a "state of alarm" when official surveillance is supposedly at its sharpest—strongly suggested acquiesence if not direct involvement of high official circles.

It is believed this is what persuaded Mendez to bring matters with the ultrarightists in the regime to a showdown.

Assured of the support of the air force, under Col. Doroteo Monterrosa, and of the country's most important military unit, the Mariscal Zavala Barracks under Col. Enrique Daniel Cifuentes, Mendez made his move. He summoned Col. Arriaga Bosque, the defense minister, to his office and informed him of his dismissal along with the chief of the Zacapa Military Base in eastern Guatemala and the chief of police. The three were considered the most militant rightists in the regime.

Arriaga's hand in government affairs is considered to have grown heavier as the fight between left and right extremists intensified. Formation of the civilian MANO organization—for Organized National Anti-Communist Movement—involved ultraconservative government officials in the fight, which spread into open resistance to Mendez' attempts at fiscal and social reforms.

The consensus appears to be that the president has considerably fortified his position. But it is still not known how the rightists will react if the president decides to proceed with needed reforms.

Dedicates Landmark

Mrs. Warren E. Hearnes, wife of Missouri Gov. Hearnes, speaks at the dedication of the George Caleb Bingham home as a National Historic Landmark in Arrow Rock. Bingham, a famous painter, lived in the house from 1837 to 1845. The house was restored in 1964 by the Missouri State Park Board. Others on the platform were not identified. (UPI)

GA Party Held In Otterville

A missionary message was given by Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Hull, who are presently home from Kenya, Africa. They showed slides of the people and their work in Kenya.

The next day after breakfast with the Rev. Warren Hallen leading the devotional, the calendar of prayer and a skit, the morning message was given by Mrs. Joe Mustion of the Boonville First Baptist Church on "Blossom for Christ."

Benediction was by Mrs. C. M. Brumback, associational W.M.U. president.

Churches represented at the house party were: Versailles, Bunceton, Bethlehem, Boonville, First, Mt. Nebo, Mt. Olive, Stover and Otterville.

Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I need help and I need it fast. I am engaged to a man whose whole family is squirrely. Ned's mother pops tranquilizing pills into her mouth as if they were peanuts. Whenever she is faced with a crisis (like the cleaning lady not showing up), she stops eating and goes on dollies.

Ned has an older sister who carries gin around in a cough medicine bottle and drinks all day. It took me two years to catch on. This girl is too sick (spelled d-r-u-n-k) to work half the time so Ned has to help her out with her bills.

Ned has a couple of brothers who mix up the pills with the booze and one of these days they are going to hit just the right combination and wake up dead someplace.

I cannot understand how come Ned is so normal. He is the best adjusted man I have ever known — and a tee-totaler who hates pills. I have to fight with him to take an aspirin for a headache.

I love Ned and want to marry him but when I look at his family I get scared to death for fear our children might take after one of the kooks. What do you say? — EYE OF THE CYCLONE

Dear Eye: My consultants tell me that behavioral problems are more environmental than hereditary. But, they caution — we DO inherit nervous systems.

If you marry Ned, I hope you will move to another city as an added precaution. Nutty relatives can make a well person sick.

Dear Ann Landers: Jack and I were married for 18 years. I nearly went into shock when he asked me for a divorce to marry another woman. How true is that old expression, "The wife is always the last to know"?

I agreed to the divorce at once, figuring it was pointless to try to hang on to him if he didn't want me. We were divorced within a short period of time but somehow he never got around to moving out of the house.

Jack seems to be going out less and less. Although I know he is still seeing the other woman he takes me to dinner once or twice a week and does the little things around the house that a husband is supposed to do. I am still very much in love with him and I am sure he knows it.

Last night I came right out and asked Jack when he was going to get married. He replied, "I don't think I'll ever remarry."

I have no right to ask Jack to stop seeing the other woman because he is no longer my husband, but it kills me when he goes out with her. Please tell me how to get this terrible mess straightened out. — FISH NOR FOUL

Dear Fish: Welcome to the club. Another idiot woman who gave her husband a divorce just because he asked for it. You should have told Jack you wanted a trial separation and invited him to move out at once. Had you done so he would probably have crawled back on his hands and knees.

Pack Jack's clothes and tell him he can come back only if he wants to live in a respectable manner. And, this means marriage.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman, who will be 84 in May and whose once daily walks have become less frequent, took an eight-block walk along Independence sidewalks Monday.

AMSTERDAM (AP) — Queen Juliana of the Netherlands celebrates her 59th birthday today while her son-in-law Pieter Van Vollenhoven celebrates his 29th.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Film actress Jane Russell says Waif, the private adoption agency she founded more than a decade ago, should finance a massive publicity campaign to boost adoption of homeless American children.

"There shouldn't be a child in America living in an institution or in a foster home if there are people available who want to adopt them," said Miss Russell, president of Waif.

Waif has helped place 20,000 homeless children from abroad in American homes, she said.

Deliberate Effort To Lose Money

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— James Garner is a money-wise star who invests his huge earnings in land and oil. Yet he allows himself one investment that is a guaranteed loser.

Garner has formed the American International Racing Co., which sponsors entries in the major auto races of the world. Of the financial aspects, he comments: "Even if I won first prize in every race I entered, I still wouldn't break even."

Then why is a dollar-conscious man like Garner involved in the sport?

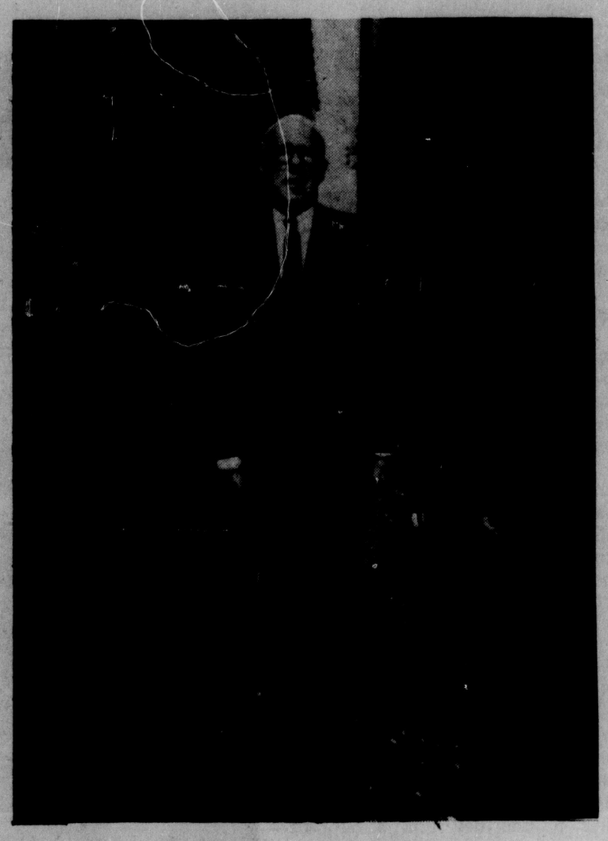

"Because I want to do something for racing," said Garner, a long-time enthusiast for fast cars. "Not many people realize that auto racing is the second biggest spectator in the world, after football—or what we call soccer.

"Racing is just coming into its own in the country, and I'd like to do what I can to help. People are already realizing what an exciting sport it is. Races like those at Sebring and Dayton Beach draw crowds of 100,000. The Riverside track near here can get 85,000. Even a place like Rockingham, N.C., which has a population of 5,500, can draw 50,000 people on a racing day."

Garner's enterprise began with the purchase of three Stingray Corvettes last year. He acquired a group of drivers, headed by Scooter Patrick and Davey Jordan. The Garner cars made good showings at Daytona in February and Sebring in March. At Sebring Patrick led the race for the first two hours, set a lap record and 10- and 20-lap records. A broken suspension and flat tire put him out of contention.

Now Garner is dropping the Stingrays, and has acquired two English-made Lolas, for which he has high hopes. In fact, he is so hopeful that he is entering the classic Le Mans in France June 15-16.

"All this costs money," he said. "I paid $18,000 just for the chassis of the Lolas and another $5,000 for the engine. Then we're doing some things to the engine which I hope will surprise the other boys at Le Mans. With four drivers, six mechanics and two or three others, it costs me about $75,000 to enter a race."

Calls for New Party

Dr. Benjamin Spock, who is feeling the symbolic walls of conscience and society closing in on him, said in St. Louis recently that a new political party must be organized to come to grips with the nation's problems. Spock, well-known baby doctor and anti-war advocate, is to go on trial in Boston May 20 on criminal charges of conspiring to counsel young men to avoid the military draft. (UPI)

Pupils Present Music Recitals

Mrs. Arthur Eickhoff, Versailles, presented her piano pupils in two recitals on Sunday, April 21 at the Methodist Church. Twenty five students performed during the first recital between 2 and 4 p.m. Miss Martha Bishop sang "By the Bend of the River," accompanied by Mrs. Jack Robinson at the piano.

During the second recital 25 students played from 4 until 5 p.m. Roger Blankenship also played an accordian solo and Miss Linda Lyle sang, "The Wind is the South," accompanied at the piano by Robert LaRue.

Approximately 100 people were present for each recital, which was followed by social hour and refreshments of cookies and punch.

To Buy Two Casinos

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The state has approved plans of Howard Hughes to buy a fifth and a sixth gambling casino for $36 million.

The transaction will make the billionaire indistrialist the No. 1 casino owner in Las Vegas, replacing William Harrah. Hughes says the new casinos will be his last.

His application to buy the Stardust Hotel and the Silver Slipper Casino was approved Tuesday by the Nevada Gaming Commission by a 3-2 vote in Carson City.

Hughes' gambling houses now account for 14.3 per cent of Nevada's gross gaming revenue. Along the glittering strip, he will employ 66 per cent of the hotel workers.

Littlebrook Proves Best Against Little Bruiser

Lord Littlebrook proved the best against Little Bruiser in their Midget Title match, Tuesday night. The event was flashy, active and filled with plenty action — but Bruiser came out without being reinjured. The event was brought about when a week before Lord Littlebrook caused Bruiser to go over the ropes and split his head open when he fell to the floor, outside the ring.

After seven minutes and 15 seconds slipped by Littlebrook gained a reverse shoulder press on Bruiser and took the opening fall. The second fall saw Bruiser resort to the pile-driver beating Littlebrook down and pressed him in three minutes and 30 seconds. The final fall ended after two minutes and 45 seconds with Littlebrook using a back-flip and press to win.

The final event between Ronnie Etchison and Nature Boy Kirby ended with Etchison being the winner on a fluke crash between the two big heavyweights as Etchison bounded off the ropes when thrown into them by Kirby. It came as the two big men fell to the mat and Ethicson was able to get to his feet before the count of ten and Kirby lay still on the mat.

The first fall was Kirby's in six minutes using a knee lift and press; the second to Etchison using a judo chop followed by a press after three minutes and 15 seconds; the third fall was Etchison's who made a big swinging "haymaker" to Kirby's chin for the count in three minutes and 20 seconds; then Kirby won the next in three minutes and five seconds using knee lift and a press.

Etchison finally won after two minutes when the two men collided and fell to the mat and Kirby was counted out.

Bobby Shane and Bob Geigel went 15 minutes to a draw in their one-fall, 15-minute time limit event.

Klondike Bill and Bobby Shane were declared the winners over Bob Geigel and Mark Starr in their team tag event. Geigel and Starr were disqualified in the first fall for unnecessary roughness and failure to obey the referee, it ended after 13 minutes and 10 seconds. The second fall saw Klondike Bill beat Starr with a bear hug forcing him to give up after eight minutes and 40 seconds.

Peak Form Derby Goal For Seven

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — It was four for the money and three for show. But the goal for all seven was peak form for Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

Calumet Farm's Forward Pass, Bwamazon Farm's T.V. Commercial and Saddle Rock Farm's Francie's Hat each worked a mile Tuesday at Churchill Downs to show their present condition to their trainers.

Proper Proof, Jig Time, Verbatim and Te Vega raced in the one-mile, $16,350 Derby Trial over the same track on which the Derby will be run.

Although racing for money is the name of the game, Jerry Meyer, who trains Elmendorf's Verbatim, pinpointed the main reason for the race as far as the first four finishers were concerned:

"Today's race was not the ulimate with us. Saturday is the Derby. We were using today's race as a conditioner."

Mrs. Montgomery Fisher's Proper Proof won the Trial in x:36, finishing a half length in front of Charles W. Englehard's Jig Time, with Verbatim another neck back.

Verbatim saved the show by a neck over Frank C. Sullivan's Te Vega.

Bathtub Safety Device Is Robe Rail from Car

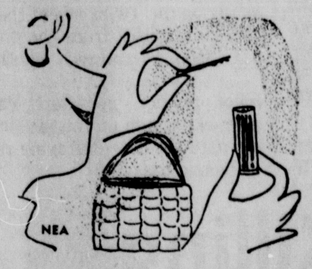

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY—Ever since Gov. Romney's wife fell in the bathtub and was injured, I have felt guilty about not writing to you. I am in the middle 70s and saved myself a fall by going to an auto junk yard and finding a robe rail from an old Packard car. The one I found was an upholstered rope with a chain inside. It was four feet long, nickel-plated and easily removed with a screwdriver. I placed this above my bathtub, within easy reach, and put a screw in each studding so it is solid. Now I have no fear of falling and it is easier to get in and out of the bathtub. This cost me nothing where a fall can cost hundreds of dollars, much pain and even one's life. I wonder how I got along without this.—MR. J. H. M.

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—Boy, am I in a mess. I hurriedly did a load of wash and forgot to check my husband's shirt pockets. Now here I sit in the midst of mountains of polka-dotted T shirts, undies and good white dress shirts. A sneaky little ballpoint pen was hiding somewhere and it melted in the dryer spreading the ink all over everything. Please help me.—TRUDY

DEAR POLLY—Empty medicine bottles are wonderful for holding bobby pins. I carry them in my purse without having to dig through everything else to find them. When dropped, the kettle does not break nor do the pins spill out. Straight pins kept in such a bottle keeps them from being scattered throughout your sewing basket.—ANG

DEAR POLLY—Being a grandmother of eight poses some problems concerning toys when the children come to visit. I solved this confusion of keeping boys' toys separated from girls' toys by buying two sturdy plastic clothes baskets of different colors. In one I keep all the ships, toys, etc., that boys like and in the other I put dolls, etc., that the little girls like. Now it is easy for each child to find and play with the right toys without a mad hunt for them. It is also easy to put things back into the baskets, which are stored in a closet until the next visit. Mothers might try this in their own homes.—GRANDMA

Minnesota Edges Boston

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

American League hitters are ahead of the pitchers, particularly when the pitchers are doing the hitting. And the California Angel hurlers may do some hitting of their own the next time Cleveland pitcher Sonny Siebert steps to the plate against them.

Minnesota's Dave Boswell, California's George Brunet, Baltimore's Bruce Howard and Chicago's Gary Peters all came through with big hits Tuesday but only the first two managed to pick up victories for their pitching.

And Siebert may have started a beanball war by allegedly brushing back California's Don Mincher three times in Cleveland's 5-3 loss to the Angels. Siebert also yielded two singles to opposing hurler Brunet, who scored both times.

Boswell drove in two runs with a homer and double but needed relief help as Minnesota edged Boston 7-6. Howard knocked in a run with a double but had to leave in the third inning after walking six batters as Baltimore outlasted New York 6-5.

Peters doubled to start a three-run seventh-inning uprising as Chicago took a 4-1 lead over Washington. But the Senators tied it in the eighth on Ken McMullen's two-run homer and won out 5-4 on McMullen's second homer of the game in the 12th.

Oakland's Paul Lindblad pitched 4 1-3 innings of perfect relief as the A's whipped Detroit 3-1 on Ramon Webster's three-run first-inning homer.

In the National League, Pittsburgh nipped Chicago 4-3, San Francisco trounced Atlanta 7-0, Houston clipped Cincinnati 3-0, St. Louis edged Los Angeles 2-1 and New York tripped Philadelphia 1-0.

California Manager Bill Rigney was seething about the Siebert-Mincher episode.

"Tell Siebert we owe him one," he snorted. "He's going down the first time we see him again. He leaned my big guy (Mincher) back three times. That's the guy who took one on the chin from Sam McDowell the last time we were here."

The Angels, trailing 2-1, scored the tying and lead runs in the sixth inning on Jimmie Hall's double and consecutive Cleveland errors by second baseman Chico Salmon and first baseman Tony Horton.

Lindblad retired Jim Northrup to end a Detroit threat in the fifth and knocked off the next 12 batters as well.

Chicago's Peters was two inning away from being a winning pitcher after Tommy Davis smashed a three-run homer in the seventh.

But the Senators bounced back on a single by Sam Bowens and Frank Howard's run-scoring double before McMullen homered on reliever Bob Locker's first pitch to tie the score. His game-winning blast in the 12th was his fourth home run of the season.

Baltimore took advantage of a New York error and other misplays for three unearned runs and reliever Moe Drabowsky put down a ninth-inning Yankee uprising.

With the bases loaded and one out, pinch hitter Frank Fernandez tempted to squeeze the tying run home but bunted a soft liner to first baseman Boog Powell for an unassisted double play.

Boswell had to be bailed out by Al Worthington in the sixth inning as the Twins swept their two-game series from the Red Sox. Ron Perranoski, another relief pitcher, got Carl Yastrzemski to pop up for the final out with the potential tying run on second base.

Astros In Twin Killing

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

With nowhere to go but up, Larry Dierker and the Houston Astros went for double or nothing . . . and made a twin killing.

The Astros, rebounding from a chaotic 17-2 loss to Cincinnati that deposited them in the National League cellar, backed Dierker's two-hit pitching with five double plays Tuesday night and blanked the Reds 3-0.

It was only the second victory for the Astros in their last 11 games and the first triumph for Dierker after three straight setbacks during which he was given a total of three runs' support.

In other NL night games St. Louis held off Los Angeles 2-1 and Pittsburgh overtook the Chicago Cubs 4-3. The New York Mets edged Philadelphia 1-0 and San Francisco trimmed Atlanta 7-0 in afternoon action.

Baltimore nipped the New York Yankees 6-5; Washington shaded the Chicago White Sox 5-4 in 12 innings; Oakland upended Detroit 3-1; Minnesota outslugged Boston 7-6 and California topped Cleveland 5-3 in American League games.

Dierker, a 21-year-old fireballer whose fortunes had sagged after an opening day victory over Pittsburgh, limited the hard-hitting Reds to a pair of singles. He struck out seven and issued three walks, but the Houston infield turned over double plays in the second, third, fourth, sixth and seventh innings for a single game club record.

The Astros broke up a scoreless duel between Dierker and Cincinnati southpaw Gerry Arrigoi eighth, tallying all their runs on Ron Davis' double and singles by John Bateman, Denis Menke, Jim Wynn and Doug Rader.

Ray Washburn stopped the Dodgers with ninth inning relief help from Joe Hoerner and ran his pitching mark to 3-0 as the Cardinals won for the seventh time in their last eight starts.

St. Louis scored its first run on a three-base error by left fielder Jim Fairey in the third inning and added what proved to be the winner in the sixth on Curt Flood's infield hit, a wild pitch by loser Bill Singer and Mike Shannon's bad-hop single past second baseman Paul Popovich.

The Dodgers ruined Washburn's shutout bid in the eighth, when Fairey tripled and scored on an infield single by Popovich.

Pittsburgh spotted the Cubs two ninth inning runs, then rallied for three in the bottom of the ninth, Manny Mota driving in the last two with a two-out pinch doublle.

Run-scoring singles by Al Spangler and Don Kessinger gave the Cubs a 3-1 lead before the Piratees pulled it out on a single by Willie Stargell, a walk, Gene Alley's run-scoring single and Mota's double to center field off reliever Bill Stoneman.

Ron Swoboda seized the major league home run lead and powered the Mets past Philadelhia with his seventh homer, second inning blast off Chris Short. Don Cardwell stopped the Phillies on five hits for his first victory after two losses.

The Giants stole four bases, stting up four runs, and buried the Braves behind the clutch pitching of Ray Sadecki, who gave up 10 hits but breezed to his third victory in four decisions after working out of jams in five of the first six innings.

Tigers Win Doubleheader In a Conference Meeting

By Vicki Stuerke

The Smith-Cotton Tigers met with Mexico Tuesday, for a conference double-header. The Tigers won both games with final scores of 8-4 and 6-2.

The Tigers got three runs in the bottom of the second with Thomas flying out followed by Neville who hit a home run. Williams then got a base hit and Nash got a base on balls. Dalton flied out and Robertson singled and went to third on error bringing in Williams and Nash. Robertson was put out trying for home.

Great Game By Nelson Spikes Celts

BOSTON (AP) — Reserve Don Nelson's "greatest game" and a typically spectacular performance by John Havlicek have boosted the Boston Celtics to within one victory of the National Basketball Association championship. But Coach Bill Russell says it was a "very bad play" on his own part which clinched matters.

Havlicek's field goal Tuesday night with 38 seconds left in an overtime period had given the Celtics a 119-117 lead over Los Angeles. The Lakers' Elgin Baylor then drove in for what could have been the tying basket.

Suddenly Russell came out of nowhere to block the shot and that was it, with Nelson sinking a clinching free throw in the 120-117 victory.

The decision left the Celtics with a 3-2 lead in the best-of-7 series as they strive to regain the championship they lost to Philladelphia a year ago. The sixth game will be played in Los Angeles Thursday, with the seventh if necessary, scheduled in Boston Sunday.

"I was guarding (Mel) Counts and I came off him to block that shot," Russell said. "Actually, it was a very bad thing to do, but I thought I'd be sneaky, and it worked this time anyway."

Nelson picked up by Boston after being cut by the Lakers two years ago, wound up with 26 points and 12 rebounds plus a strong defensive effort against his old mates.

Havlicek led Boston's scoring with 31 points, and also added 10 rebounds and eight assists. He went the entire 53 minutes.

New Orleans can wrap up the ABA title tonight at home against Pittsburgh. The Buccaneers lead the Pipers 3-2 in their best-of-7 series.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

PARIS (AP) — French heart-transplant patient Clovis Roblain died because his vigorous new heart flooded his lungs with blood, his doctor said Tuesday night.

Roblain, 66, lived for 51½ hours with the heart of a 23-year-old metal worker killed in an auto crash. The operation Saturday night was the first heart transplant in Europe and the seventh reported in the world.

After an autopsy, Dr. Christian Cabrol, 43, the surgeon who headed the transplant team, gave this explanation of Roblain's death Tuesday morning:

"Clovis Roblain had a deficient circulatory system, and because he had remained in bed for so long he had numerous clots in his veins. When a new and vigorous heart propelled a normal circulatory flow, it swept away all the clots and flooded his lungs."

Before the autopsy, Dr. Maurice Mercadier, the chief surgeon at La Pitie Hospital, where the operation was performed, said Roblain had died because of an insufficiency of blood to the brain.

SEOUL (AP) — An American-made hand grenade exploded in a downtown cable office Tuesday night, injuring seven persons. Information Minister Hong Jong-chul blamed North Korean saboteurs.

Security officials said the grenade was thrown through a window and went off near a group of people filing overseas cables in the government's international telecommunications office.

Thirty minutes later a live grenade was found on the step of a basement tea house 1,000 yards from the cable office.

Police said they believed the incidents were part of a coordinated Communist terrorist campaign to create unrest in the South Korean capital.

Security measures for government buildings were stepped up, and the defense ministry said it was considering sending troops into the city for guard duty.

OTTAWA (AP) — Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau has sent his ambassador back to Paris with instructions on what to do about France dealing directly with Quebec Province without Ottawa's approval.

Trudeau at a news conference Tuesday declined to reveal his instructions to Ambassador Jules Leger, who had been recalled for consultation over the incident. He gave no indication that a break in diplomatic relations was imminent.

Canada suspended diplomatic relations with Gabon after that tiny African country invited the French-speaking province of Quebec to the first stage of an education conference for French-speaking nations in February. France accepted Quebec at a continuation of the conference in Paris.

Most of the vast territory of the Soviet Union lies farther north than the contiguous United States.

Teacher Dedicated To Learning

SANDWICH, Ill. (AP) — David E. Graf, honored by President Johnson as 1968 National Teacher of the Year, is a man with an uncommon dedication to helping children learn.

Graf, 51, is the coordinator of a diversified occupations program in Sandwich, a town of 5,000 about 60 miles west of Chicago. His pioneering efforts in this program, which places students in local businesses and industries for half a day, and his work with the mentally retarded, won his national recognition.

In ceremonies in Washington, Johnson told Graf the award was in "recognition of your gift to the nation and to those of us who want to see the teaching profession occupy the high place to which it is entitled."

Robert Turney, Sandwich superintendent of schools, said Graf was instrumental in establishing a training and employment program for the mentally reterded.

The project, Open Door Inc., provides a workshop for the retarded and places them in jobs with local industry, Turney said. Graf's work puts him in constant contact with both students and local businessmen, the superintendent said.

"Dave's a very good public relations man," Turney said.

His efforts were rewarded recently by local donations to build a $35,000 building to house the workshop.

Educational Program Declared a Failure

By GARVEN HUDGINS
AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Title I, the federal project on which $3 billion has been spent in the hope of answering the educational needs of deprived children, is not working out. On this point, critics and supporters alike are agreed.

Some critics call the two-year-old project a total flop, and others claim it has actually worked against poor children.

While supporters reject this argument, they concede that Title I isn't functioning as its sponsors intended.

"The Title I program obviously has not even begun to make any impactq on motivating ghetto youngsters," said Rep. Roman Pucinski, D-Ill., chairman of the House General subcommittee on Education. "You go across the length of the country and you find the money being spent on the same tired old ideas. It is a monumental flop and the outbreak of recent riots speaks louder than anything I can say about the total collapse of the program."

Joseph Froomkin, assistant U.S. commissioner of education, said that Title I, at the very least, has focused attention on one of America's worst problems, and should be continued, but added, "We still have little evidence that the problem is being licked; in fact, we may even be falling behind."

"I think we probably would need $5 billion a year to do the job adequately," Froomkin said in an interview. "The program is spread too thinly. One billion dollars a year, the present appropriation, spread around the country isn't a lot of money."

Title I is the heart of the Elementary and Secondery Education Act passed by Congress in 1965 to provide funds for the education of poor children. It established a national goal to equalize educational opportunities for all children by compensating for the disadvantages of those who grow up in poor communities.

Educators contend that poor children start school later, learn less while they are there, and drop out sooner. The result, they say, is that povrty tends to perpetuate itself.

For the current fiscal year, $1.15 billion has been allocated for Title I. But a national survey by a panel of distinguished U.S. educators has concluded that too much of this amount is going to expand old curricula and ideas that already have proven to be blind alleys.

The National Advisory Council on the Education of Disadvantaged Children said these faults turned up in the course of its nationwide survey:

Small group instruction, a major Title I goal, frequently takes the form of organizing school children into groups of like ability. In effect this results in groupings by cultural and economic backgrounds.

"Title I will hardly be fulfilling its mission if it fosters a new track system, removing the disadvantaged child from his more stimulated and motivated school mates," the council said.

In an area that council members feel any advance might have produced the most dramatic reesults of all—parent involvement in the child's learning—there was almost no apparent progress.

"One reason the disadvantaged child is disadvantaged is because he does not bring to school a motivation acquired at home,' said the council.

The study found that less than one-third of all projects surveyed involved changes that encouraged experimentation or exploration. And most in-service teacher training—supported by federal funds—worked out to be a couple of hours after each school day with an average length of projects 10 days.

Title I aims at helping all poor children, but the biggest problem is in predominantly Negro schools of the big cities. In channeling aid to those schools, the program has been caught in the middle of a hot dispute between those pressing for racial integratio and those who want better schools in Negro neighborhoods.

Harold Howe II, U.S. commissioner of education, endorses both goals but argues that improving predominantly Negro schools "will not by itself do the trick . . . we cannot hope to convince the Negro child that he is as good as any other youngster as long as we quarantine him in schools reserved for racial and national minorities."

Another who shares froomkin's "modest optimism" about Title I is Dr. Alice M. Rivlin, deputy assistant secretary for program analysis with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"I think we have found the task is much tougher than we thought at the start . . . when it began, we really didn't know how to go abbout it. We still don't, really, but we're trying to find out. There is no evidence that it (the program) has failed . . . I'm very optimistic. I think what we've got here is a big experimental program and I think it should be continued. At the very least it has focused attention on drprived children—something that wasn't true before," she said.

Dr. Thomas B. Pettigrew, a Harvard social psychologist, charged the program is working against research findings that "the most important thing a school can provide for disadvantaged children is contact—meaningful contact—with affluent children."

Pettigrew said in an interview that the program gives first choice on funds to schools that have a majority of poor youngsters, and "This further separates the poor from the rich."

He likened Title I to the federal rivers and harbors programs.

LBJ May Teach Here

President Lyndon B. Johnson last week told a closed meeting of aides to Democratic congressmen, that he planned to teach at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs on the University of Texas campus in Austin. The LBJ school is shown under construction and is part of the LBJ Library complex, scheduled for completion late next year. At rear is the University of Texas Tower. (UPI)

STATIONED in the eye clinic of the base hospital at Cherry Point Marine Corps Base, North Carolina is Lt. John W. Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Richards, Route 4, Sedalia. Richards, an optometrist, was promoted to lieutenant in April. He is a 1961 graduate of Smith-Cotton High School.

Candlelight Ritual Held

An Exemplar Ritual was performed by candlelight the evening of April 24 at the home of Mrs. Robert Nichols. The following new members were in the ceremony: Mrs. Donnie Kabler, Mrs. Tom McCaskill and Mrs. Felix Melvin. Each member was presented with the traditional yellow rose.

A ceremony installing officers for the coming year was then held. The new officers are: Mrs. Jack Newby, president; Mrs. Bill Burkholder, vice president; Mrs. Edmona Mathes, secretary; Mrs. Barney Sullivan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Walter Loveland, treasurer; Mrs. Bill Arnold, city council representative; Mrs. Bill Jarrett, alternate, city council; Mrs. Del Gann, historian.

A Belgian lace cloth covered the tea table which was centered with a fresh bouquet of yellow roses. Mrs. Walter Loveland assisted Mrs. Nichols in serving. A social hour followed.

Violence Reported As a US 'Tendency'

LONDON (AP) — The suggestion that Americans have a tendency toward violence has popped up again in foreign commentary on the United States.

Two weeks after one British writer said the Americans' greatest fault is "an undue toleration of violence," another wrote from Washington: "The United States is a violent country.

"It was born in violence, and developed in violence," said Louis Heren of the Times of London. "Foreign wars have been periods of regulated violence between the revolution and the latest race riots.

"Four of the 35 presidents were assassinated, and Mr. Johnson (the 36th President) was not the first to limit his movements for fear of violence. This is not an indictment, or an expression of latent anti-Americanism, but a statement of fact."

The earlier statement about toleration of violence was by Paul Johnson, writing in the left-wing weekly New Statesman.

An Associated Press sampling of foreign opinion also turned up comments on nonviolence in La Nation, the Gaullist party organ in France.

In a three-page section on "America in the face of the black problem," the newspaper commented: "Has nonviolence been outlived? The tragic end of pastor (Martin Luther) King tends to indicate this is so . . .

"It was a certain section of America, that of fraternity and good will, which was once again assassinated . . . It is to be hoped that the death of Pastor King will fortify the faith of his followers."

In comment on American presidential candidates, a West German writer criticized Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. Most German correspondents recall the enthusiastic greeting the German people extended to the senator's elder brother, President John F. Kennedy, and expect Robert to be popular too.

Kurt T. Leissler wrote in the nationally distributed Sunday paper Welt am Sonntag that if a "second President Kennedy" should enter the White House he would be active in foreign politics.

But, Leissler said, his primary effort in Europe would be not the revitalization of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, "but the 'disengagement,' the detaching of the United States from its West European allies and the lifting of the confrontation of the United States and the U.S.S.R. in central Europe."

The writer said Kennedy's father, Joseph, as American ambassador to London in 1938, fought against U.S. involvement in the fight against Hitler and in 1948 argued for American withdrawal from Korea and all of Asia.

Dimple Doctor Well Paid

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Dr. Benito Rish puts dents in patients' faces and gets paid for it. He is a plastic surgeon who installs dimples.

Rish, who rebuilds faces to order for those who don't like the original design, told Monday of his new technique for making sexy dimples or craggy Kirk Douglas clefts.

The New York City surgeon told his colleagues in head and neck plastic surgery there is a great demand for the little touches in cosmetic surgery like chin dimples.

"Most of the women wanted a chin like Ava Gardner's," Rish told the 200 doctors attending a meeting of the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

Rish said his operation, done in an office under local anesthesia, takes only about five minutes.

For mannish cleft or dainty dimple, Rish said, he nicks the skin under the chin, then makes a small pocket under the flesh and stitches the skin to the chin bone with two steel sutures.

A tiny hole cut through the chin from outside makes a scar too tiny to notice that heals to the chinbone in a pretty pucker.

A week later, the sutures come out and—voila—instant dimple.

Mrs. Jerry Page (Lehmer Studio)

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Cheryl Landreth, Jerry Page

The First Baptist Church of Otterville was the setting April 6 for the marriage of Miss Cheryl Landreth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Landreth, Otterville, and Mr. Jerry Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Page, Otterville. The Rev. Warren Haley read the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with seven branch candelabra holding white candles entwined with smilax. Emerald palms banked the nuptial altar and baskets of white gladioli and mums tied with pink satin bows completed the setting. Pink satin bows marked the family pews.

Mrs. Don Zumsteg, Syracuse, organist, accompanied Mr. Freddie Conrad as he sang, "Because," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Presented in marriage by her father, Miss Landreth walked down the carpeted bridal aisle wearing a traditional wedding gown of hand clipped French lace. Her slender basque bodice was styled with long tapering sleeves and a scalloped Sabrina neckline. From the lowered waist deep tiers of lace formed the bouffant front skirt, with a simulated overskirt curving at each side and extending to a chapel train. A small cap of lace petals, centered with pearl trimmed fabric loops, held her triple pouf veil of imported illusion. Bridal flowers were a cascade arrangement of fragrant white pixie carnations and pink sweetheart roses. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Kenneth Moon, matron of honor, wore a floor length gown of pink satin. The empire line bodice was accented with white lace, with a pink velvet ribbon extending down the back. Her head piece was a pink circlet with a brief veil of voile. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Jimmy Page and Mrs. Larry Castle were attired identical to the matron of honor and carried victoria colonial bouquets of deep pink pixie carnations with velvet streamers.

Candlelighters were Debbie Streeter, niece of the groom and Susie Page, sister of the groom. They wore identical short dresses of pink satin. Flowers for the candlelighters were wrist corsages of miniature pink varigated carnations.

Miss Tammy Landreth, sister of the bride, flower girl, was gowned in a floor length dress of pink satin. She carried a basket of rose petals and wore miniature pink carnations for a headpiece.

Ring bearer was Master Kelly Gochenour, cousin of the bride. He carried the nuptial rings on a heart shaped satin pillow.

Larry Castle, Otterville, was best man and groomsmen were Mr. Ronnie Landreth, brother of the bride and Mr. Jimmy Page, brother of the groom. Ushering duties were performed by Mr. Don Streeter and Mr. Jack Page.

The mother of the bride chose a three piece navy suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother selected a beige dress with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the annex of the Baptist Church will approximately 200 guests present.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length cloth of tiered bridal lace over pink satin, garlanded with smilax and pink satin bows. In the center of the table a three tiered bridal cake topped with miniature bride and groom figures completed the setting. Triple branch candelabra containing three pink candles flanked the cake, and smilax and pink miniature carnations surrounded the cake and candelabra.

Mrs. Ronnie Landreth was in charge of the guest book, Mrs. Jim Gochenour, Mrs. Don Gochenour, Mrs. Edward Seifert and Mrs. G.L. Young were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. Robert C. Holman, Mrs. Harry Baker and Mrs. LeRoy Young served at the bridal table.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue knit dress with matching accessories.

After a brief trip to the Lake of the Ozarks the couple is at home in Otterville.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Otterville High School and is presently employed at the Bank of Otterville. The groom is a 1962 graduate from Otterville and is now employed at Bixlers Gas Co. in Otterville.

Lawyers Critical Of Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Perry Mason, who in nine glorious years of weekly television never lost a case, was given a hard time Tuesday night by some eminent legal talent in a CBS news department show called "Trial Lawyer."

The hour program consisted of a series of interviews by Harry Reasoner with five of what he called "the best publicized and best paid" trial lawyers of the nation. Even in that company, the name Perry Mason was to be conjured with—as an active irritant.

F. Lee Bailey, who took an unsuccessful stab at television performing himself for awhile earlier this season, asserted almost testily that Erle Stanley Gardner's fictional character has had "a tremendous influence on our law."

"I have heard jurors tell me over and over again that they were left in a state of concern because, if the defendant didn't do it, who did?" Bailey said. "Now the burden is on counsel to produce the guilty party in all cases where his client is innocent."

Mason, he charged, aborted "every rule of evidence," and added that the public too often thinks that is the way a court really operates.

Later in the program, Edward Bennett Williams was asked by Reasoner if there was any substance to the feeling of many laymen that frequently a decision or verdict depended on "sharp tricks or technicalities."

"I call this the "Perry Mason Syndrome," replied Williams. "I think that Perry Mason stories, Perry Mason-type shows, are responsible for this kind of thinking."

The program, originally scheduled for broadcast last January, consisted almost entirely of talk, some of it suggesting weaknesses in the nation's legal structure.

Bailey, for instance, asserted his belief that "the presumption of innocence is the greatest fiction in American jurisprudence," and said that many feel that a defendant wouldn't be in court "unless he did it—or at least did something."

Melvin M. Belli's main theme was the importance of demonstrating, by means of X-rays and skeletons, the nature of a plaintiff's injuries in negligence cases. He also spoke of his problems in handling the Jack Ruby case in Dallas.

ABC will drop a daytime show, "The Baby Game," and substitute a new soap opera in July.

NBC has signed Julie Andrews for another special—but not to be made until a year from now for showing some time in 1969.

Barbara Oehrke, Charles Brown Exchange Vows in April Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown

At 11 o'clock the morning of Tuesday, April 9 Miss Barbara Jean Oehrke and Gunners Mate Third Class Charles E. Brown exchanged vows in the chapel of the Wesley Methodist Church. The Rev. George Sparling, pastor, officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Oehrke, 2302 East 15th, and the son of Mrs. Violet Brown, Route 3.

The bride selected a light yellow ensemble and with white accessories.

Attendants were miss Deanie Conn, Sedalia and Mr. Wes Brown, brother of the groom, Sedalia.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shelly Oehrke, 2302 East 15th for the wedding party and families.

After a wedding trip to southern Missouri and Arkansas the couple is residing at 2302 East 15th.

Gunners Mate Third Class Brown is stationed with the Navy at Chulai in Vietnam and will return soon to active duty.

A bridal shower was given to the bride-elect by Mrs. Russell Conn Sr., Mrs. Russell Conn Jr. and Mrs. Deanie Conn on March 17.

A miscellaneous shower give by her aunt, Mrs. Marvin May, honored the bride-to-be on March 24.

Mobile Home Park Motif Is Colonial

The tract of land in the area of West 16th and Thompson Blvd., formerly known as Missile Manor, is being converted into a mobile home park.

Owners of the park are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shumate.

The park has been named Heritage Village Mobile Home Park. Shumate said the name was selected to suggest a colonial setting for the project.

Plans include an expansion of the colonial theme by constructing a stone, pillar-type entrance to include an archway. Also included in the plans are a recreation and social center, concrete foundations with patios for all home sites, a storm shelter and swimming pool.

"We have 304 sites ready for occupancy now, complete with utilities — gas, water and electricity," Shumate said. He added that if missile workers return, as is possible under a recent Minuteman modification announcement, plenty of room can be made available to them.

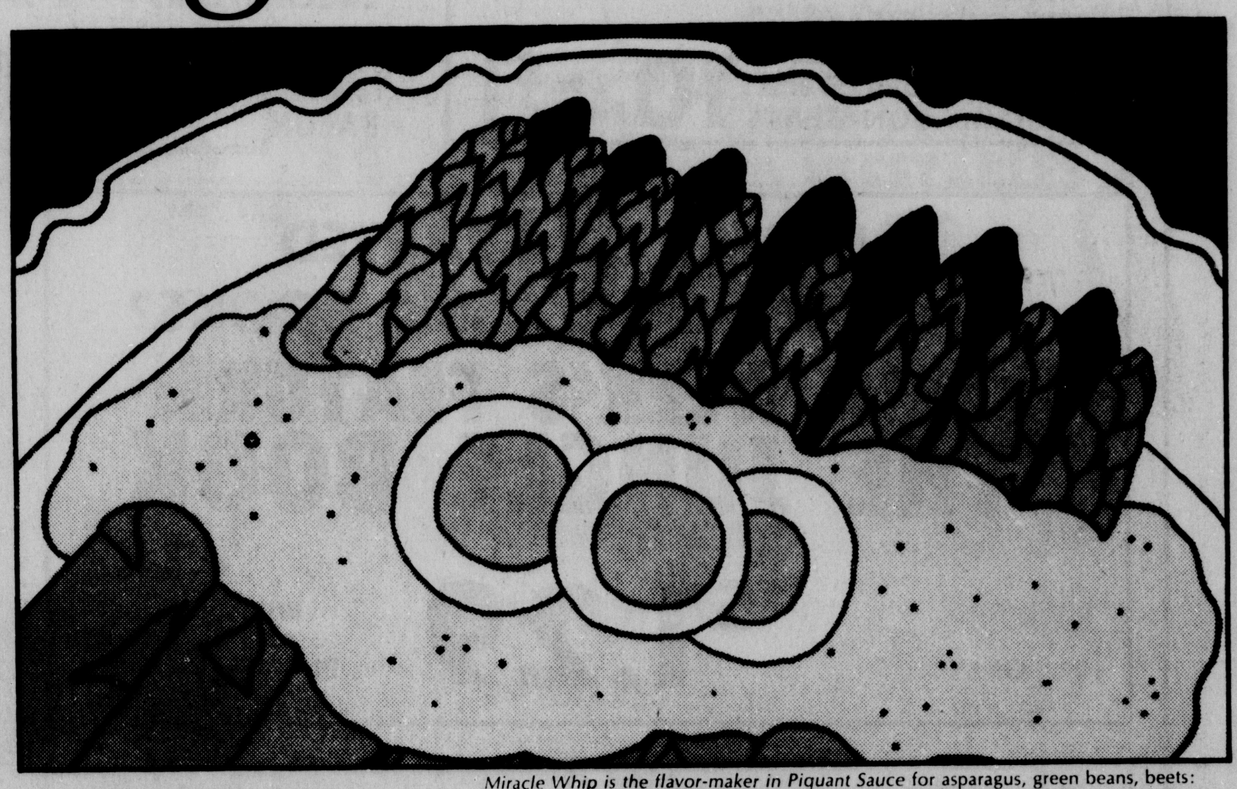

On completion, the area will have sidewalks to all home sites, and the entire area will be landscaped, Shumate said. The area has been under the new ownership since April 1.

Some of the home sites are already occupied.

First known autopsy performed in North America was in 1535, when early Conadian settlers were dying of scurvy.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government scientists say a study indicates mothers who don't get enough protein during pregnancy have children with lower intelligence and higher rates of brain disorders.

They say studies are likely to be conducted to determine if a slightly higher than normal protein intake will produce babies with higher intelligence.

Scientists said the study involved 50,000 women and the protein deficiency was found mainly in poverty level women, noticeably Negro women.

The study was conducted by the National Institutes of Neurological Dseases and Blindness.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A private study concludes the National Guard probably appeals as much to Negroes as whites—but the Negroes have reservations about possible discrimination and riot-control duty.

The study—including interviews with 1,052 Negroes between the ages of 16 and 25—was conducted by a Philadelphia firm to help the guard recruit more Negroes.

Conversation Pieces

Takes Issue With Tags On Ready-to-Wear Items

By JOY STILLEY .

NEW YORK (AP) — The garment industry classifies the clothing I buy in department stores as ready-to-wear, but I take issue with that designation.

By the time I have removed all the price tickets, tags, labels, washing instruction cards, strings, fiber content affidavits and pins from my purchases, I feel I've done about as much work as the seamstress who made them.

It's all very interesting reading matter, though, and it does make for sparkling conversation, should anybody compliment me on a dress.

"This old thing?" I say nonchalantly. "It's just a little wrinkle-resistant blend of 87 per cent viscose rayon, 5 per cent imported silk and 8 per cent acetate tricot, bonded to 100 per cent acrylic to give finer fit, appearance and comfort."

If my friend has been doing her homework she'll take it from there. "What's the residual shrinkage?" she'll inquire thoughtfully.

"Oh, this luxury fabric, exclusive of ornamentation, may be washed with reasonable care," I reply. "Ironing is not necessary, but if desired, I use a warm (not hot) iron."

In addition to providing dramatic discourses at social gatherings, the material appended to my wardrobe gives me more for my money. By the time I have a blouse in a true ready-to-wear condition I have salvaged enough pins to pierce every voodoo doll in Africa. As a matter of fact, I haven't had to buy a straight pin since I took sewing in the sixth grade.

Ordinarily I manage to get rid of all this extraneous matter before the apparel goes out of style, but on one recent occasion there was a slight slipup.

I had bought a new spring coat, but the weather was still too cold to wear it so I hung it in the closet without preparing it for action. It suddenly turned warm enough for my coat to make its debut so I hastily removed the price tag and off I went in my new finery.

I was on the bus when the lady sitting next to me hesitantly asked if I realized there was a label on my coat seeve.

It was a lovely label, all right, done in fine satin and with a beautifully woven announcement that the coat was fabricated 100 per cent of a well known brand of wool. Proud as I was of that fact, I didn't think I should be flaunting it on my sleeve.

However, this decoration was sewed in four corners and neither I nor my new-found friend was carrying a pair of scissors. She did, fortunately, have a metal nailfile and by gently sawing away at the threads was able to divest my coat of its unwanted ornament.

Ends His Career With Oil Company

Frank A. McCurdy a former Sedalian and now a resident of Kansas City, Kan., retired May 1 from the Mobil Oil Corp., after 36½ years' service.

He retired from the position of superintendent of car maintenance, but has held various positions with the company.

He was honored with a banquet April 17 and was presented with a retirement plaque and gifts from the personnel of the traffic department.

The expression, "blue-bellied Yankee," originated with Confederate soldiers.

What's Right in the U.S.A.

Since 1958, May 1 has been observed annually as Law Day U.S.A.

Its purpose is to foster respect for law; to increase public understanding of the place of law in American life; to point up the contrast between freedom under law in the United States as opposed to government tyranny under other systems.

The times are certainly propitious to cause most of us to pause for a moment of reflection, evaluate these purposes, and recognize law's intangible force not only makes freedom and progress possible but also brings order into the affairs of men, enables them to survive, accumulate possessions, develop the arts and sciences, pursue knowledge and enjoy security.

Considering the many turbulent activities and the boldness with which the laws of this country are being violated daily the impression is formed that everything is wrong with America; that we are on the verge of going to pot.

On this Law Day U.S.A. we may properly ask not what is wrong with America, but what is right with America.

We are impressed by a survey made by the Family Economics Bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Co., whose reports leads off:

"America isn't perfect, she's just the best there is."

It seems that the fault finders can't think of anything good to say about their country in their biased and unreasoned criticism of the American system. So the analysis is drawn that the fall of America, if it comes, may be as much the fault of critics, who deny the good of their country, as of the flaws the critics carp about.

The survey catalogues immense progress in areas of law, crime prevention, education, housing, poverty, and human rights.

In America, success is mostly the result of opportunities taken advantage of. The person who succeeds is the one who decides for himself, to finish high school, go to college, choose a career from among many, risk a new venture, seek and accept responsibility, increase his knowledge and develop his skills. Their number is legion. They will become the bulwark of our nation in the days ahead, not the minority whose immoderate behavior on and off campus is so overzealous, unreasonable, repugnant and in violation of the laws.

We read and hear a lot about the antics of noisy and violent demonstrators who would have us believe it is popular to ridicule America.

But on this Law Day, this Loyalty Day, let the solid citizens acknowledge there's a lot right with America, too. Those who believe America is worth saving must speak up in support of the good in her, admit the bad, and strive for improvement in all fields — including living together in equity, peace and harmony.

Let the negative thinkers be challenged by the positive thinkers in support of their country's position as the greatest nation in the world, and determine to keep her there.

First Step on the Road to Crime

By DREW PEARSON and JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — If you go back far enough into the life of James Earl Ray, wanted as the suspected assassin of Martin Luther King, you will find the reason which started him on the road to crime was what starts most crime in the United States — juvenile delinquency.

When Ray was a boy going to school at Ewing, Mo., in the 9th grade, he stole the school's hot-lunch money, and tried to blame it on a classmate, Carlyle Washburn.

That was Ray's first brush with the law. From this first escapade he went from bad to worse. Every time he got into jail it was for a longer term for a worse crime.

This week the top leaders of Washington are attending a dinner to raise money for Big Brothers, which throughout the United States attempts to guide fatherless boys. There are 20,000 fatherless boys in and around the nation's capital, thousands more in the rest of the nation. All of them are basically good boys, and with guidance none are likely to go wrong. Without guidance some of them will.

All the specialists report that the family plays the most important part in building a child. He can be raised in the slums, in abject poverty, even without much education, and if he has a strong father and mother he will not only survive but become a constructive citizen.

Some of the nation's leaders of today have emerged from the East Side of New York, where strong Jewish families from Eastern Europe made sure that their children were brought up right.

The American system unfortunately destroyed the Negro father. There were no Negro fathers in slave days, and the welfare system of today once decreed there must not be a man in the home. This was one of the causes of juvenile crime in the major cities and a major challenge of America.

—Sinatra Returns—

Frankie Sinatra is coming back to the nation's capital this week for the first time since he sang for John F. Kennedy on the famous night Kennedy was inaugurated President of the United States, Jan. 20, 1961. Sinatra is coming back with his full Hotel Fontainebleau musical show to help raise money for Big Brothers.

In Washington, Charlie Cohen, now 80 years old and once a power in the American Legion, remembers when Sinatra was singing with Tommy Dorsey. Frank was relatively new in the music world then and was Dorsey's vocalist.

This was during World War II when Cohen, a veteran of World War I, was chairman of the American Legion's war bond drive in the District of Columbia.

Sinatra confided to Cohen what most people don't know — how he had tried to enlist in World War II but was rejected because the medics found he had a punctured eardrum. Sinatra never explained this publicly, but Cohen remembers vividly how upset Frank was at that time.

—HHH Invades Ole Miss—

Hubert Humphrey's invasion of Mississippi last week indicates the amazing changes which have taken place in the South.

Most people have forgotten it but in 1948 Humphrey almost bolted the Democratic convention in Chicago when his fellow Democrats refused to go for civil rights. At that time, Mississippi delegates were among the most vigorous in opposing Humphrey.

Twenty years later, Humphrey flew to "Ole Miss" at Oxford to breakfast with an integrated group of Mississippians, including Charles Evers, brother of the slain Medgar Evans of the NAACP; Dr. Aaron Henry, the Negro druggist who ran for governor; and white Lt. Gov. Charles Sullivan, together with representatives of Catholic, Protestant and Jewish churches.

"In the worst of times you must do the best of things," the Vice President said, referring to racial accusations against Mississippians. "When you are accused of the worst, you must do the best."

After breakfast, Humphrey spoke for only 15 minutes in the Coliseum, then answered questions for an hour and 15 minutes.

Calling upon Mississippi to lead the way in the South, Humphrey said:

"We are not interested in the sins of yesterday. The reason I came to the university is because I am interested in the men of tomorrow. Few people in this country get a chance to go to college. You have a great opportunity, not merely to earn money but to build the character of this nation.

"An old teacher of mine once said the test of a man's religion is not merely how you treat God but how you treat people. You in Mississippi are proud of your reverence for God. I know you have the same reverence for people."

—Merry-Go-Round—

The bobbysoxers play for keeps. Mrs. Art Buchwald, who is on the committee for the Big Brothers dinner, finds she can't sell tickets to the supporters of Bobby Kennedy. They say that the President of Big Brothers is not for Bobby so they are not for the dinner. . . Congressmen who voted for the open housing provision in the latest civil rights bill are getting a storm of mail from angry realtors. In some states the mail indicates that people are more worried about open housing than the war in Vietnam. . . The politicos complain that HHH hasn't developed his staff work yet. When they telephone offering their support for Humphrey, they get no calls back from anyone. . . Sen. Ernest Gruening of Alaska is swinging the Alaska delegation for Humphrey. This could be important. Alaska votes second at the Democratic convention, and if Alabama, the first state, goes to Wallace, it means that the second state will go to Humphrey.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Pettis County Historical Society, a young organization brought about through the efforts of the American Legion, has taken the first steps toward establishment of a Pettis County Museum. It will be on the first floor lobby of the court house. Trophies from world wars will be placed in the first large case built by Ted Eschbacher and Fred Brock. J. L. Curry is president of the Historical Society.

FORTY YEARS AGO

After several months of inactivity in weight-lifting, Gordon M. Strain, Sedalia's light-weight strongman, opened his spring campaign by record making performances establishing three American records. E.C. Wollett acted in an official capacity with Charles Morgan as scale clerk, James T. Denny, A. W. Morgan and A. H. Wilks as witnesses.

NINETY YEARS AGO

A Democrat reporter was shown a magnificent specimen of workmanship Saturday night. It was an ordinary wall bracket carved from one piece of walnut by Mr. H. G. Smith of the M.K. & T. car shops and represented all of the emblems of the Masonic fraternity. The work was designed and painted by Mr. Isaac Wright.

'Ravages of Prosperity'

Americans "have had it too good for too long and have gotten soft," said Gen. James H. Doolittle the other day.

"On the average," continued the man who led the daring air raid against Tokyo 26 years ago, "we are not as courageous or as moral as our founding fathers. We are suffering from the ravages of prosperity. As a nation, we are inclined to laziness and immorality."

Another general once delivered a much more stinging criticism of his fellow Americans:

"Such a dearth of public spirit and want of virtue, such stock-jobbing and fertility in all the low arts to obtain advantages of one kind or another . . . I never saw before and pray God I may never be witness to again . . . . Such a dirty, mercenary spirit pervades the whole, that I should not be at all surprised at any disaster that may happen."

Thus wrote George Washington shortly after taking command of the army besieging Boston in 1775.

Critics to the Contrary, We CAN Trust Those We Elect

By BRUCE BIOSSAT
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)

Today's great stir over "credibility in government" reflects adversely not only upon some men in public office, but upon many American citizens who spread widely the notion that mistrust should be our watchword.

In the Saturday Evening Post, Daniel P. Moynihan, the urbanologist, quotes a Britisher as saying of the American approach to government that the "one all-important secret" we have is "the knowledge of how to trust one another."

Trust is indeed a root matter in our democratic system. We elect a president and U.S. senators to speak for us in the large, and a representative to attend to our narrower, more local concerns. Implicit in this process is the idea of trusting.

If, in advance, we have reason not to trust an individual, presumably we do not elect him. If, in office, he proves unworthy of our trust, we may cast him out and choose another.

General mistrust of political office-holders would, however, be thoroughly destructive of the system.

It is one thing to argue that President Johnson has created a "credibility gap," and that SOME others in government have followed suit. It is quite another matter to contend that no politician in office is to be believed or trusted.

The logical consequence of so broad a lack of trust in governing officials could only be, ultimately, the collapse of representative government and its replacement by something else.

Unhappily for the present stability of the American form, a good many students, scholars, members of the New Left and the Radical Right seem to be making just such a dangerous case.

Sounding very little different than the quite-limited folk who complain that "all politicians are crooks," today's extreme critics shout that "the system" is managed by evil men who must, for society's good, somehow be thwarted in their purposes.

Actually, if mistrust so sweeping as this were a proper response, then the American citizen could have faith in nothing, including himself. Perhaps that is what some of the critics unwittingly are saying about themselves today.

For the people in public office are drawn from among us all. They were students once, and some of them were scholars. Some, too, were pretty militant. They are a good cross-section of society.

To say that none of them is to be trusted is to say, in effect, that no one can be trusted. In their wholesale condemnation, the critics damn themselves and the "humanity" in whose name they profess to speak.

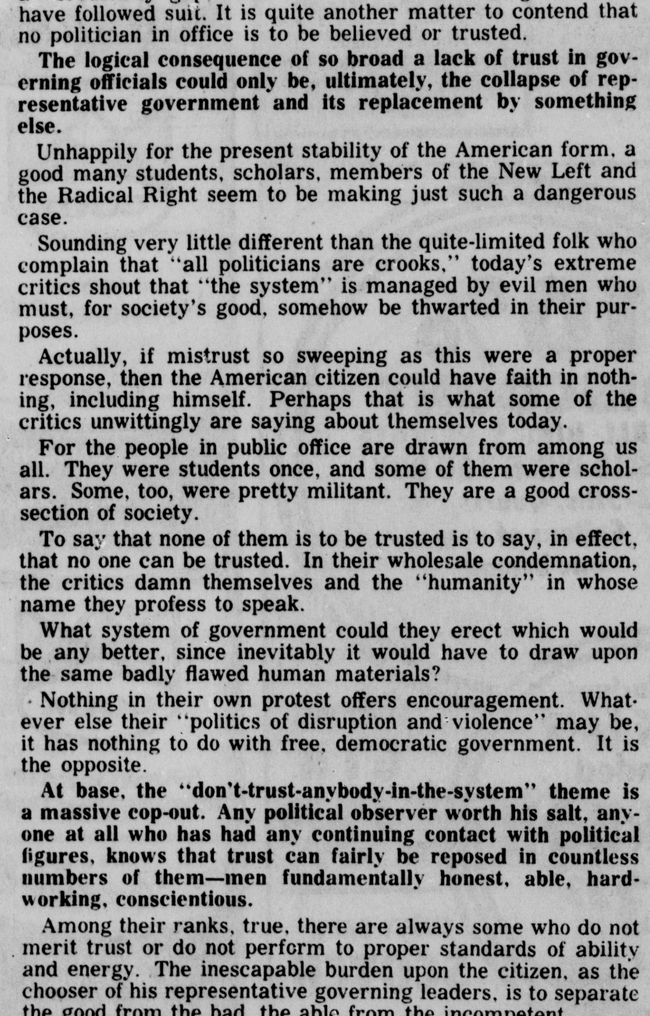

What system of government could they erect which would be any better, since inevitably it would have to draw upon the same badly flawed human materials?

Nothing in their own protest offers encouragement. Whatever else their "politics of disruption and violence" may be, it has nothing to do with free, democratic government. It is the opposite.

At base, the "don't-trust-anybody-in-the-system" theme is a massive cop-out. Any political observer worth his salt, anyone at all who has had any continuing contact with political figures, knows that trust can fairly be reposed in countless numbers of them—men fundamentally honest, able, hard-working, conscientious.

Among their ranks, true, there are always some who do not merit trust or do not perform to proper standards of ability and energy. The inescapable burden upon the citizen, as the chooser of his representative governing leaders, is to separate the good from the bad, the able from the incompetent.

To shirk this responsibility is not, as the critics would have it, to recoil from evil. It is rather to withdraw from the practice of freedom—and to demean, tragically, one's self and all one's fellows.

"... And, of course, Rocky's got a better chance against Bobby, just on the basis of NET WORTH!"

The late George Kling was one of the great players of the '20s. Today's hand is taken from an article he wrote for the Bridge World of April, 1930, entitled "The Lead of a Singleton".

George was obviously a conservative bidder. He did not double the four heart bid. He opened the king of clubs. When it held the trick, George realized that his partner was marked with the ace. In spite of the fact that East had signalled a come-on with the eight spot, Mr. Kling shifted to his singleton diamond. South won in dummy and East showed lack of any interest in diamonds by playing his three spot.

A heart was led and won by West's ace. West proceeded to lead his three of clubs. East took his ace and gave George a diamond ruff to defeat the contract.

There was nothing sensational about this defense. Today it would be almost automatic for any good player who would reason that there would be nothing to lose by waiting with his ace of spades.

Mr. Kling pointed out in his article that South would have made his contract had he played dummy's king of spades after winning that first diamond in dummy. This would allow him to discard his second club and make it impossible for West to put East into the lead.

Mr. Karpin points out that while this avoidance play would work this time, it would cost the contract if East held the ace of hearts and West had started with two diamonds. In that case East would be in with the trump ace to give his partner the diamond ruff which would only be available because the avoidance play had given the defense a chance to lead a second diamond.

The World Today

Support Legal Representation

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) The Selective Service System has withstood a proposed major overhaul, but now a team of senators favors a change to permit men challenging their draft status representation by an attorney.

Nine senators, led by Sen. Edward V. Long, D-Mo., are sponsoring a bill that would guarantee potential draftees the right to be represented by counsel in any proceeding before a Selective Service board.

Legal representation currently is ruled out. One argument for this: The draft system contends it would not be fair to the poor, who couldn't afford attorneys.

Long's Judiciary subcommittee on administrative practice and procedure sees—in the Office of Economic Opportunity— a way around that objection.

Earl Johnson, who heads the poverty agency's division of neighborhood legal services, is among witnesses slated to appear at a May 16 hearing on the draft-counsel measure.

Johnson said in an interview his agency would attempt to provide counsel to youths facing the draft who could not afford it otherwise, should the bill be enacted.

But Johnson said he has no idea what the possible caseload might be if the bill were enacted. "We don't have unlimited resources," he said. "If the load became too great we wouldn't be able to handle them all."

Publicly, Selective Service is taking no formal position on the matter. But privately, officials there said it could create chaos for the draft boards.

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, the Selective Service director, is to testify on the measure and the bill's advocates expect him to oppose it.

A form letter currently is sent to lawyers or draftees who ask why they can't have counsel before draft boards. The letter notes that draft board members are generally without legal training.

"Our efforts through the years," it continues, "have been aimed at keeping the procedures so simple that it would not be necessary to have legal counsel at any hearing before the local board.

"We have always been of the opinion that it would be unfair to the many who cannot afford to hire attorneys if the sons of other families were permitted to have their cases presented by legal counsel."

However, the form letter adds, a government appeals agent is attached to each draft board, assigned to be "equally diligent" in protecting the rights of the government and the potential draftee. Sponsors of the bill question whether this kind of dual service is really possible.

Furthermore, Sen. Long voices belief the Supreme Court would hold denial of counsel unconstitutional.

Emphysema Sufferer Must Avoid Polluted Air

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D

Q — What is the cause of emphysema? What are the symptoms and the treatment, if any?

A — This disease is caused by long, continued exposure to polluted air. In order to get the maximum pollution in the shortest period nothing beats cigarette smoking. The small air sacs in the lungs become valvelike and the air taken into them does not flow out freely. The victim has a chronic cough. As the disease progresses shortness of breath on mild exertion becomes the chief complaint.

The treatment includes giving up smoking, the use of drugs that dilate the bronchial, lying across a bed with the head near the floor to allow the bronchial secretiona to flow out (postural drainage), respiratory stimulants and protection against respiratory infections. In far-advanced cases oxygen inhalation may be necessary.

For more detailed information write to the National Emphysema and Bronchitis Association, 5025 N. Paulina Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60640. With the decrease in the prevalence of tuberculosis, the National Tuberculosis Association, 1790 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019, is also working on this problem and can supply you with information.

Q — Is Arizona weather better for a person who has emphysema than southern Florida?

A — Persons with emphysema can, with appropriate treatment, be made more confortable in any climate but, in general, body chilling should be avoided because it induces spasm in the bronchial tubes. Excessive dampness and excessive dryness should also be avoided. A search for a perfect climate often leads to disappointment, but if you have tried living in either of the locations mentioned, have felt better there and if you are looking for a retirement home, either place would offer advantages over a cold, wet climate.

Q — Are house plants harmful to a person who has emphysema?

A — No. Plants differ from people in that they take up carbon dioxide from the air and give off oxygen.

Q — Is INH used to treat emphysema ? Is this a drug that is given for tuberculosis?

A — Isoniazid (INH) is an effective drug in the treatment of tuberculosis but not emphysema.

Fodder for Totalitarianism

The Nazis, for all their gruesome efficiency, evidently were not efficient enough. There are still enough Jews left in Poland to constitute a "danger" to the socialist people's government.

Four Jews have been purged from government posts in the wake of unrest that swept that country recently in protest against the closing of a classic Polish play of czarist times that contained anti-Russian sentiments.

Although Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka subsequently attempted to make a distinction between anti-Semitism and anti-Zionism and offered to allow any Polish Jew who wants to go to Israel to do so, he merely reaffirmed an ancient truth.

Totalitarianism, by whatever name it goes under, feeds on prejudice and enmity against minority groups. They have historically been convenient objects on which to blame official mistakes and against which to focus popular dissatisfaction with the ruling party's shortcomings.

Right and Wrong Way

Like most things, there is a right way and a wrong way to prune spirea. Spirea is a Spring flowering shrub, thus the blossoms are on wood that matured and initiated buds last year. Pruning is advised right after flowering, in a few days here, so next year's growth can get started. Removal of older limbs to ground level with a slight cutting back of new growth usually sutfices. Top photo shows the right way to prune, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hodges, 1503 West Third. Wrong way is shown in photo taken just across the street at Liberty Park. Campaigns on Alternatives

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller apparently intends to base his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination on alternatives to Richard M. Nixon's stands on the Vietnam war and big-city problems.

The New York governor—who entered the race Tuesday saying he could not effectively offer alternatives from the sidelines—plans to state his position on Vietnam today in Philadelphia.

He already has outlined a 10-year, $150 billion proposal against slum poverty. Nixon has said he would not join in "overpromising" slum dwellers help they won't get.

Rockefeller said March 21 that he was not a candidate but would speak out on the issues to try to influence his party's basic positions.

He said Tuesday: "I frankly find that to comment from the sidelines is not an effective way to present the alternatives—the alternatives that I believe can lead us out of our difficulties—to order and progress at home, to peace and understanding abroad."

Nixon predicted he still will win the GOP nomination but welcomed Rockefeller's entry and said it "will result in a more meaningful discussion of the issues."

Rockefeller led Nixon and Gov. John A. Volpe with a surprisingly strong write-in showing in the Massachusetts primary Tuesday. Only Volpe's name was on the ballot.

On the Democratic side, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy was unopposed on the ballot and easily outpolled presidential rivals Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

The unofficial count: Republicans (1,596 of 1,734 precincts)—Rockefeller 29,003, Nixon 24,739, B. Volpe 27,717. Democrats (1,596 precincts) — McCarthy 105,898, Kennedy 58,646, Humphrey 38,291, President Johnson 6,052.

In other political developments:

—Kennedy, campaigning in Indiana's May 7 primary, proposed in Indianapolis higher Social Security benefits and a benefits system that would not penalize retirees who want to keep on working.

—McCarthy said the recent stock market rally reflects an unexpected dovishness. "To those of us who had long since despaired of the economic implications of open-ended escalation (in Vietnam)," he said in New York City, "that remarkable rally came as a rather unexpected vote of confidence in peace."

—Humphrey flew to New York City to seek funds for his campaign. Sidney J. Weinberg, known in financial circles as "Mr. Wall Street," has been gathering Humphrey campaign funds for a week but declined to say how he is doing.

—Backers of third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace filed a petition to get his name on Colorado's November ballot and said they have enough petition signatures to get on Nevada's ballot.

To Open Highway

TULAROSA, N.M. (AP) — A New Mexico state highway built during World War II will be opened for limited civilian traffic for the first time this weekend.

Military officials at White Sands Missile Range said New Mexico 52 across the southern New Mexico missile range will be opened to escort convoys of civilian vehicles at specific times in the future.

No weapons or cameras will be permitted and all vehicles must have spare tire, jack and ample gasoline and water for the desert trip.

New Mexico 52, maintained by the military, was built for military purposes south of Trinity Site, where the world's first atomic bomb was detonated.

Argument for Lesser Sentence Is Denied

KANSAS CITY (AP) — His argument for reduction of sentence that one fight with two FBI agents was worth only one prison term, not two, was denied Michael E. Thorne.

Thorne, 34, serving a 15-year sentence at the federal prison in Leavenworth, argued that he should serve only 10 years. He had pleaded guilty to assault and was sentenced to consecutive terms of five and 10 years.

"This court cannot conceive of any doctrine under which he could be held guilty of only one assault as a matter of law," U. S. District Judge William R. Collinson ruled Tuesday.

Seek Exhibits At Art Fair

COLUMBIA, Mo. — The tenth annual Art Fair sponsored by the Columbia Art League will be held at Parkade Plaza shopping center mall May 18.

All Central Missouri artists who want to submit their original works for sale to the public may obtain entry forms at the Art League gallery, 12 North Tenth, or telephone 443-8838 for more information.

Emphasis is on original works at art, Mrs. Gene Martin, chairman, emphasized. These might include such media as paintings, sculpture, drawings, graphics, ceramics, textiles, photography, or jewelry. A 15 per cent commission on all sales will go to the Art League.

Last year 61 exhibitors from Mid-Missouri took part in the Art Fair, and seven organizations presented demonstrations during the day.

The mall area of the Plaza will open at 8 a.m. for setting up displays and the Fair will officially open at 9 a.m., continuing until 6 p.m.

Big Corporations See Historic Profits Margins

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Spurred by renewed consumer demand, riding the crest of an inflationary boom, free of big strikes and, for the moment, free of the restraints of higher taxes, America's corporations are reporting huge profits.

Hundreds of companies are reporting earnings considerably higher than last year's rather depressed figures, and some of the nation's very largest firms report first-quarter earnings exceeding any other year in history.

The records are being achieved despite higher costs for raw materials and labor, and despite some of the highest borrowing costs of this century.

The question now being asked by corporate finance officers and stockholders is: "Can we keep it up?" In some cases the answer seems to be no. Tighter money, labor problems and higher taxes are expected to accompany a slowdown later this year.

In the meantime, the announcements are amazingly repetitious. Mimeographed press releases are filled with phrases such as higher than last year, highest first quarter, highest for any quarter in the company's history.

The profits are the result not just of higher sales but also because of a return to higher profit marginism. In 1966, for example, the percentage of profits to sales was more than 5.5 per cent. It dropped to less than 5 last year but now seems likely to average well over 5 per cent again.

The big automotive companies, hurt a year ago because of safety problems and consumer inertia, are among the chief contributors to the suddenly bright corporate profit picture.

General Motors reported a 17 per cent jump in January-February-March profits to $456.7 million. Chrysler's net income rose 280 per cent to $69.3 million. And Ford scored an 85 per cent advance to a record first-quarter profit of $120.6 million.

Steels, consumer products, textiles, office equipment, oils, food stores and the so-called conglomerates, which make and sell a spectrum of products, were among the big gainers.

Boeing, one of the largest aerospace companies, reported three-month profits of $22.8 million, second highest in its history, although some other aircraft companies saw profits drop. The paper industry reported earnings declines, as did the railroads.

Profit increases by Bethlehem and Republic Steel exceeded 30 per cent, and Inland Steel's increase was a whopping 85 per cent. Among food companies, Safeway Stores had a 50 per cent gain and Winn-Dixie nearly 12 per cent.

International Business Machines, whose shareholders this week voted approval of a 100 per cent stock dividend, had good reason to feel confident in doing so. The huge computer maker continued to build record upon record, boosting first-quarter net income to $187.4 million from $137.1 million a year ago.

Speaking about industry in general, Business Week magazine commented:

"In fact, when all the figures are tallied up, the gain over a year ago could be close to 15 per cent—meaning roughly a $90-billion annual rate before taxes and a $53-billion rate after taxes."
